Press release
24 March 2021

Peeter Kinnunen is appointed acting CEO of Klöver

In line with what was communicated in a press release on 29 December 2020, Rutger Arnhult will leave his position as CEO on 25 March 2021. The Board of Directors has appointed Peeter Kinnunen acting CEO of Klöver. Peeter Kinnunen is Klöver's Head of Transactions, belongs to the Executive Management and has been employed by the company since 2012.

The Board of Directors' search process for a new CEO continues.

"Peeter Kinnunen has for many years been a very important colleague in Klöver. I am very confident that Peeter, together with the rest of the management team, will continue to run the company in the best way", says Rutger Arnhult.
