Consortium consisting of Nordic Capital and Permira extends offer period until 14 October 2025 and provides update on regulatory approvals in respect of the takeover offer to the shareholders of Bavarian Nordic

COPENHAGEN, Denmark, September 29, 2025 - With reference to the announcement of 26 August 2025 (no. 24/2025) regarding the publication of the offer document (the "Offer Document") concerning the all-cash voluntary recommended public takeover offer to acquire all of the issued and outstanding shares (except treasury shares) in Bavarian Nordic A/S ("Bavarian Nordic") by Innosera ApS (the "Offeror"), a company controlled by Nordic Capital Fund XI¹ and funds managed and advised by Permira Beteiligungsberatung GmbH (the "Offer"), the Offeror has today published a supplement (the "Supplement") to the Offer Document. The Supplement extends the initial offer period of the Offer by two weeks, as the Offeror has informed Bavarian Nordic that such an extension is required to provide additional time to obtain the last outstanding regulatory approval necessary to satisfy the regulatory conditions of the Offer. The Supplement also provides certain supplementary information regarding distributions and a statement that the minimum acceptance condition as of the date of the Supplement has not been satisfied.

The Offeror has informed Bavarian Nordic that the Offeror has obtained regulatory approvals (or expiry of relevant waiting periods) relating to merger control in Australia, China, Saudi Arabia, Switzerland and United States and in relation to foreign direct investment in Germany, Italy and Denmark. Accordingly, the only outstanding regulatory approval is the merger control approval in the European Union. The Offeror currently expects this outstanding approval to be obtained (or the applicable waiting period to have expired) by mid-October 2025 with completion of the Offer taking place in mid-Q4 2025.

Pursuant to the Offer Document, the Offer became valid as of 26 August 2025 and was to expire on 30 September 2025 at 5:00 p.m. (CEST) unless extended in accordance with the terms of the Offer as set forth in the Offer Document. The offer period is now extended until and will expire on 14 October 2025 at 11:59 p.m. (CEST). Accordingly, any reference to the "Offer Period" in the Offer Document, the Board Statement (as defined below), or in any other document and/or announcement relating to the Offer shall mean the period starting on 26 August 2025 and expiring on 14 October 2025 at 11:59 p.m. (CEST).

Reference is also made to the statement published by Bavarian Nordic in company announcement no. 25/2025 whereby the Board of Directors² decided to recommend the shareholders of Bavarian Nordic to accept the Offer (the "Board Statement"). The Supplement does not cause the Board of Directors to amend its recommendation to the shareholders of Bavarian Nordic to accept the Offer for the reasons described in the Board Statement.

The Supplement has been prepared by the Offeror and has been approved by the Danish Financial Supervisory Authority on 29 September 2025. All other terms and conditions of the Offer remain unchanged. Offer-related documents, including the Supplement, and English translations of such documents, are, subject to certain

Notice to shareholders in the United States

The Offer is subject to the laws of Denmark. The Offer relates to the securities of a Danish company and is subject to the disclosure requirements applicable under Danish law, which may be different in material respects from those applicable in the United States.

The Offer is being made in the United States in compliance with Section 14(e) of, and applicable provisions of Regulation 14E promulgated under, the U.S. Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"), and otherwise in accordance with the requirements of Danish law. The Offer is not subject to Section 14(d)(1) of, or Regulation 14D promulgated under, the Exchange Act. The Offer is subject to disclosure and procedural requirements that may be different from those applicable to U.S. domestic tender offers, including with respect to withdrawal rights, the Offer timetable, notices of extensions, announcements of results, settlement procedures (including as regards to the time when payment of the consideration is rendered), and waivers of conditions. In addition, any financial information included in the Offer documents may not have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States and thus may not be comparable to financial information relating to U.S. companies. Shareholders whose place of residence, seat, or habitual residence is in the United States ("U.S. Shareholders") are encouraged to consult with their own advisors regarding the Offer.

The Offer is being made to U.S. Shareholders on the same terms and conditions as those made to all other shareholders to whom the Offer is made. Any information documents, including the offer to purchase, are disseminated to U.S. Shareholders on a basis reasonably comparable to the method that such documents are provided to other shareholders.

It may be difficult for U.S. Shareholders to enforce certain rights and claims they may have arising in connection with the Offer under U.S. securities laws, since the Offeror and Bavarian Nordic are located in non-U.S. jurisdictions, and some or all of their respective officers and directors are residents of non-U.S. jurisdictions. U.S. Shareholders may not be able to sue the Offeror or Bavarian Nordic and/or their respective officers or directors in a non-U.S. court for violations of U.S. securities laws. Further, it may not be possible to compel the Offeror or their respective affiliates, as applicable, to subject themselves to the judgment of a U.S. court.

The receipt of cash pursuant to the Offer by a U.S. Shareholder may be a taxable transaction for U.S. federal income tax purposes and under applicable U.S. state and local, as well as foreign and other, tax laws. Each U.S. Shareholder is urged to consult its independent professional advisor immediately regarding the tax consequences to such U.S. Shareholder of accepting the Offer.

In accordance with customary Danish practice and to the extent permitted by applicable law, including Rule 14e-5(b) of the Exchange Act, the Offeror or any affiliates or nominees or brokers of the foregoing (acting as agents or in a similar capacity), may from time to time make certain purchases of, or arrangements to purchase, shares (or any securities that are convertible into, exchangeable for or exercisable for such shares) outside of the U.S., other than pursuant to the Offer, before or during the period in which the Offer remains open for acceptance. These purchases may occur either in the open market at prevailing prices or in private transactions at negotiated prices. If, prior to completion of the Offer, the Offeror or any affiliates or any nominee or broker of the foregoing acquires Shares at a higher price than the offer price, the Offeror will increase the offer price correspondingly as required by applicable law. In addition, affiliates of the financial advisors to the Offeror may also engage in ordinary course trading activities in securities of Bavarian Nordic, which may include purchases or arrangements to purchase such securities as long as such purchases or arrangements are in compliance with applicable law and regulation. Any information about such purchases will be announced through Nasdaq Copenhagen and relevant electronic media if, and to the extent, such announcement is required under applicable law or regulation.

Neither the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission nor any securities commission or other regulatory authority in any state of the United States has approved or declined to approve the Offer or any offer documents, passed upon the fairness or merits of the Offer, or provided an opinion as to the accuracy or completeness of this announcement or any other documents regarding the Offer. Any declaration to the contrary constitutes a criminal offense in the United States.

This announcement is not intended for distribution in any jurisdiction where such distribution would violate applicable law or regulation. The Offer is being made only through the official offer documents and only to such persons and in such jurisdictions as permitted under applicable law. No recommendation is made as to whether holders of securities should tender their securities in connection with the Offer. Holders of securities should consult their own financial, legal, and tax advisors before making any decision regarding the Offer.
