Wolters Kluwer again recognized as a Leader in Gartner® Magic Quadrant™ for Financial Planning Software

Wolters Kluwer CCH Tagetik AI-based financial planning solution empowers finance professionals to make faster and better-informed decisions.

New York – Dec. 8, 2023 – Wolters Kluwer, a global leader in professional information, software solutions and services, today announced that it has been recognized as a Leader in the 2023 Gartner Magic Quadrant for Financial Planning Software. Earlier this month, Wolters Kluwer also received recognition as a Leader in the Gartner Magic Quadrant for Financial Close and Consolidation Software.

CCH Tagetik Budgeting, Planning and Forecasting software is Wolters Kluwer’s AI-based, enterprise-wide planning solution, which helps global companies facilitate strategic, financial, and operational planning, including supply chain, workforce, and capital expenses. The solution, which supports customers across vertical industries, is particularly useful to organizations that require a high volume of users, and to organizations that have complex needs including predictive planning, advanced analytics, cascading allocations, management reporting, data connection, and integration with third-party source systems.

Ralf Gärtner, Senior Vice President and General Manager of Corporate Performance Solutions, Wolters Kluwer, said: “CFOs who want to succeed in a business transformation environment need technology that connects financial and operational planning processes, so they can dynamically update forecasts, improve resiliency, and optimize operational efficiencies. We believe our consistent recognition as a Leader by Gartner is confirmation that the CCH Tagetik expert solution delivers on all of those needs, and more. We look forward to investing in continued innovations to ensure that CCH Tagetik remains a leader when it comes to empowering CFOs with data-driven insights that deliver improved planning agility, accuracy, and transparency.”
