

Bilia expanding the service business for trucks in northern Sweden

Bilia has reached an agreement to acquire Hellgrens Lastvagnsservice AB and Skellefteå Billackering AB in Skellefteå. The business is conducted within two companies under one roof and operates a full-service facility within repair, service, bodywork and painting of transport vehicles and trucks. The acquisition is effectuated as of today, August 31, 2022.

The business being acquired reported for 2021 a total turnover of approximately SEK 28 M and currently has 19 employees.

Per Avander, Bilia's MD and CEO, comments:

"Through the acquisition of Hellgrens Lastvagnsservice AB and Skellefteå Billackering AB, we continue to expand Bilia's operations in northern Sweden. This enables us to develop our truck operations for Mercedes in the important and fast-growing Skellefteå region and strengthens our service network along the coast of Norrland."

Anders & Magnus Hellgren, owners, comment:

"In order to meet the strong expansion in Skellefteå and the surrounding area, we see that Bilia as the new owner of our companies can provide the resources required for continued development of the business and our employees. Anders Hellgren takes on the role of site manager and look forward to take care of both existing and new customers together with the staff."
