Section 11

In accordance with authorisations in Article 5b of the Articles of Association, the Board of Directors has issued, respectively re-issued 505,000 warrants, providing the right to subscribe to a maximum of 505,000 shares, each with a nominal value of DKK 10 (a total nominal value of DKK 5,050,000), at a rate of DKK 131.40 per share of nominal value DKK 10. Of the 505,000 warrants, 51,950 have been reissued under section 9 of this appendix. Of the 505,000 warrants, 200,500 warrants have been exercised for subscription of nominally DKK 2,005,000 shares on 22 November 2017, 10,000 warrants have been exercised for subscription of nominally DKK 100,000 shares on 7 June 2018, 10,000 warrants have been exercised for subscription of nominally DKK 100,000 shares on 6 June 2019, and 68,500 warrants have been exercised for subscription of nominally DKK 685,000 shares on 29 August 2019.

Subscription for shares according to the awarded warrants can be made, wholly or partly, in periods of each 14 days (1) first time from the day of publication of the Company's Interim Report (Q3) for the first 9 months of 2017; (2) second time from the day of publication of the Company's Annual Report for the year 2017; (3) third time from the day of publication of the Company's Interim Report (Q1) for three months of 2018; (4) fourth time from the day of publication of the Company's Half Year Report (Q2) for 6 months of 2018; (5) fifth time from the day of publication of the Company's Interim Report (Q3) for 9 months of 2018; (6) sixth time from the day of publication of the Company's Annual Report for 2018; (7) seventh time from the day of publication of the Company's Interim Report (Q1) for 3 months of 2019 and/or (8) eighth time from the day of publication of the Company's Half Year Report (Q2) for 6 months of 2019. Warrants, which are not exercised in the first subscription period, can be exercised in later subscription periods, however no later than 1 December 2019.

If the warrant holder is in possession of insider knowledge during the last subscription period, the warrant holder may request from the Board of Directors a right to exercise warrants in a period of 2 weeks after the first publication of the Company's Interim Report or Annual Report (the "Extraordinary Period") after the expiry of the last subscription period. It is a requirement for exercising warrants in the Extraordinary Period that the warrant holder has requested the Company's Board of Directors in writing hereof by the expiry of the last subscription period, after which the Board of Directors decides on a potential Extraordinary Period. The Board of Directors shall not be obliged to this and shall make its decision in accordance with the Company's guidelines for incentive remuneration in force at the time in question. The Board of Directors may decide to expand the subscription period by one or more Extraordinary Periods.

The existing shareholders shall not have pre-emptive right for the warrants.

The warrants cannot be assigned or placed as collateral by the warrant holder to third party.

If a decision is made before exercise of the warrants concerning sale of a majority of the shares in the Company, which means transfer of more than 50% of the Company's Share Capital to third party (who may be a shareholder in the Company), the Board of Directors can decide:

That the warrant holder, wholly or partly, shall exercise all awarded warrants, regardless of whether vested or not and transfer the shares on the same terms and conditions as the other transferring shareholders (or renounce to do so, in which case the warrants shall lapse), or

That the warrant holder shall keep the awarded warrants on the terms and conditions set out herein.

If a decision is made before exercise of the warrants concerning dissolution of the Company, including by merger or de-merger, the Board of Directors can decide:

That the warrant holder, wholly or partly, shall exercise all awarded warrants, regardless of whether vested or not and transfer the shares on the same terms and conditions as the other transferring shareholders (or renounce to do so, in which case the warrants shall lapse), or

That the warrant holder shall keep the awarded warrants on the terms and conditions set out herein.

If a decision is made before exercise of the warrants concerning increase of capital, issue of warrants, convertible debt instrument or the like, by the means of which the shares can be subscribed for a value not lower than the market value, it shall not affect the terms and conditions of the warrants. Nor will the terms of the warrants be affected by any resolution to increase the share capital in order to allow employees, consultants or directors of the Company or its subsidiaries to subscribe for shares at a price which is lower than the market value.

If a decision is made before exercise of the warrants concerning 1) increase of capital, issue of warrants, convertible debt instrument or the like, except to employees, consultants or board members of the Company and its subsidiaries, by the means of which the shares can be subscribed for a value lower than the market value, 2) if the Company implements a reduction of capital for coverage of deficit or 3) implements a reduction of capital in the Company with payment to the shareholders and this change involves a reduction or increase of the potential profit according to the warrants, the subscription price hereof and/or the amounts of shares shall be regulated, which can be subscribed by exercise of the warrants, so that the potential profit of the warrants will remain unchanged. If, before the warrants have been exercised in full, a resolution is passed to reduce the Company's share capital to make distributions to the shareholders, and such change does not reduce or increase the potential gain on the warrants, the terms of the warrants shall not be adjusted. Warrants to employees of Bavarian Nordic Inc. are, however, subject to additional adjustment provisions.

For the exercise of awarded warrants, the Board of Directors has decided on an increase of the Company's share capital in one or more portions by a total nominal value of up to DKK 5,050,000 by cash payment at a price of DKK 131.40 per share of nominal value DKK 10 and without pre-emption right for the Company's existing shareholders. The details and terms for the issuance of shares have been established by the Board of Directors.

The Board of Directors may during the period ending 31 December 2015 in one or more portions reuse or reissue any lapsed and unexercised warrants issued in accordance with this section. Reuse or reissue of the 51,950 warrants that have been reissued under Article 5b and section 9 can only be reused or reissued during the period ending 31 December 2014. Reuse is to be construed as the Board of Directors' entitlement to let another party enter into an existing agreement on warrants. Reissue is to be construed as the Board of Directors' option to reissue new warrants under the authorisation set forth below, if previously issued warrants have lapsed.

The warrants may be reused or reissued to the management and employees of the Company or its subsidiaries, including to consultant and the Board of Directors of the Company. Warrants may be reissued for the subscription of shares by cash contribution at a subscription price and on such other terms as the Board of Directors may determine in accordance with the original authorisation. Any issuance of warrants to the management shall be made in accordance with the Company's policy for incentive remuneration, prepared in accordance with section 139 of the Danish Companies Act and approved by the general meeting, cf. Article 17a of the Articles of Association.

Holders of warrants shall have pre-emption right to subscribe for the shares issued based on the warrants, meaning that the pre-emption rights to subscribe to warrants and new shares for existing shareholders are deviated from.

If and to the extent that warrants are reissued, the Board of Directors is authorised during the period until 1 April 2019 to resolve on the related capital increase by a nominal value of up to DKK 5,050,000 in one or more portions by cash contribution at a subscription price and on such other terms as the Board of Directors may determine without pre-emption right for the existing shareholders. If and to the extent that warrants are reissued pursuant to Article 5b and section 9 of this appendix (51,950 warrants) the authorisation to the related capital increase is only applicable during the period until 1 April 2018.

The new shares issued based on issued, reused or reissued warrants shall from the time of subscription have the same rights as existing shares according to the Articles of Association. The new shares shall be negotiable instruments and shall be registered in the names of the holders and shall be entered in the Company's register of shareholders. No restrictions in the transferability of the new shares shall apply and no shareholder shall be obliged to allow for their shares to be redeemed – in whole or in part. The new shares shall be eligible for dividends from the time of subscription.

Section 12

In accordance with authorisations in Article 5b of the Articles of Association and, the Board of Directors has issued 335,002 warrants, providing the right to subscribe to a maximum of 335,002 shares, each with a nominal value of DKK 10 (a total nominal value of DKK 3,350,020), at a rate of DKK 366.85 per share of nominal value DKK 10.

Subscription for shares according to the awarded warrants can be made, wholly or partly, in periods of each 14 days (1) first time being after the publication of the Company's 2018 annual report; (2) second time being after the publication of the Company's quarterly report (Q1) for the first 3 months of 2019; (3) third time being after the publication of the Company's quarterly report (Q2) for the first 6 months of 2019; (4) fourth time being after the publication of the Company's quarterly report (Q3) for the first 9 months of 2019; (5) fifth time being after the publication of the Company's 2019 annual report; (6) sixth time being after the publication of the Company's quarterly report (Q1) for the first 3 months of 2020; (7) seventh time being after the publication of the Company's quarterly report (Q2) for the first 6 months of 2020; and/or (8) eighth time being after the publication of the Company's quarterly report (Q3) for the first 9 months of 2020. Warrants that are not exercised electronically in the first subscription period may be exercised in subsequent subscription periods, always provided that any warrants not exercised at the expiry of the last subscription period will lapse without notice and without compensation.

If a warrant holder holds inside information during the last subscription period, the warrant holder may ask the Board of Directors to be granted a right to exercise warrants during a period of 2 weeks after the first publication by the Company of a quarterly or annual report after the expiry of the last subscription period (an "Extraordinary Window"). In order to be granted a right to exercise warrants in an Extraordinary Window, the warrant holder shall prior to the expiry of the last subscription period make a written request to the Board of Directors and the Board of Directors will then on the basis thereof decide whether or not the warrant holder will be offered an Extraordinary Window. The Board of Directors is not obliged to offer a warrant holder an Extraordinary Window and any such decision shall be made in due consideration of the Remuneration Policy. The Board of Directors may decide to expand the subscription period by one or more Extraordinary Windows.

The existing shareholders of the Company do not have any pre-emption rights with regard to the Warrants or shares subscribed for pursuant thereto.

The warrants cannot be assigned or placed as collateral by the warrant holder to third party.

In the event that (i) a majority of the Company's shares is sold, meaning that at least a third of the Company's share capital is transferred to a third party (who may be an existing shareholder of the Company) or (ii) the Company is dissolved, including by merger or demerger, the Company's Board of Directors may decide:

That warrant holders must exercise all or part of the warrants that have been granted, whether they have vested or not, and transfer the shares on the same terms as the other transferring shareholders (or waive the right to such Warrants in which case they will lapse); or

That warrant holders will retain the warrants that have been granted on unchanged terms.

If, before the warrants have been exercised in full, a resolution is passed in the Company to increase the share capital, issue warrants, convertible debt instruments or other instruments, allowing subscription for shares at a price not lower than the market value, this will not affect the terms of the warrants. Nor will the terms of the warrants be affected by any resolution to increase the share capital in order to allow employees, consultants or directors of the Company or its subsidiaries to subscribe for shares at a price which is lower than the market value.

If, before the warrants have been exercised in full, a resolution is passed in the Company (i) to increase the share capital, issue warrants, convertible debt instruments or other instruments to any persons other than the employees, consultants or directors of the Company or its subsidiaries, allowing subscription for shares at a price which is lower than the market value, (ii) to reduce the Company's share capital to cover any loss, (iii) to reduce the Company's share capital to make distributions to the shareholders, or (iv) to carry out payment of dividend, and such change reduces or increases the potential gain on the warrants, the exercise price and/or the number of shares that may be subscribed for by the exercise of warrants must be adjusted to ensure that the potential gain on the warrants remains unchanged. If, before the warrants have been exercised in full, a resolution is passed to reduce the Company's share capital to make distributions to the shareholders, and such change does not reduce or increase the potential gain on the warrants, the exercise price and/or the number of shares that may be subscribed for by the exercise of warrants will not be adjusted. Warrants to employees of Bavarian Nordic Inc. are, however, subject to additional adjustment provisions.

For the exercise of awarded warrants, the Board of Directors has decided on an increase of the Company's share capital in one or more portions by a total nominal value of up to DKK 3,350,020 by cash payment at a price of DKK 366.85 per share of nominal value DKK 10 and without pre-emption right for the Company's existing shareholders. The details and terms for the issuance of shares have been established by the Board of Directors.

In each subscription period, the Company may at its discretion decide that the warrant holder shall exercise his/her warrants by full or partial settlement in treasury shares rather than subscribing for new shares. Settlement in treasury shares may be effected by:

- a) The Company delivering one (1) treasury share of nominally DKK 10 for each exercised warrant against the warrant holder's payment of consideration in an amount equivalent to the subscription price; or
- b) The Company delivering a number of treasury shares with an aggregate market value corresponding to the difference between (i) the aggregate market value of the number of shares that would have been subscribed for under the exercised warrants and (ii) the aggregate subscription price of such warrants. If the difference between the aggregate market value of the shares and the aggregate subscription price does not correspond to the market value of a whole number of treasury shares, the number of treasury shares to be delivered by the Company shall be rounded up or down to the nearest whole number. For the purpose of this subsection b), the market value of the shares in the Company shall be determined based on the average market price (closing price) of the shares in the Company as quoted on the Danish Stock Exchange Nasdaq Copenhagen over the last five (5) business days prior to expiry of the relevant subscription period.

If the Company decides to exercise the right to settlement in treasury shares, the Company must notify the warrant holder hereof before expiry of the subscription period. If the Company decides settlement in treasury shares as described in subsection b) above, the warrant holder shall not pay the subscription price for the shares under the warrants that are being settled in treasury shares and any part of such subscription price already paid by the warrant holder to the Company will be repaid to the warrant holder within 30 days after expiry of the relevant subscription period.

The Board of Directors may during the period ending 31 December 2016 in one or more portions reuse or reissue any lapsed and unexercised warrants issued in accordance with this section. Reuse is to be construed as the Board of Directors' entitlement to let another party enter into an existing agreement on warrants. Reissue is to be construed as the Board of Directors' option to reissue new warrants, under the same authorisation, if previously issued warrants have lapsed.

The warrants may be reused or reissued to the management and employees of the Company or its subsidiaries, including consultants and the Board of Directors of the Company. Warrants may be reissued for the subscription of shares by cash contribution at a subscription price and on such other terms as the Board of Directors may determine in accordance with the original authorisation. Any issuance of warrants to the management shall be made in accordance with the Company's policy for incentive remuneration, prepared in accordance with section 139 of the Danish Companies Act and approved by the general meeting, cf. Article 17a of the Articles of Association.

Holders of warrants shall have pre-emption right to subscribe for the shares issued based on the warrants, meaning that the pre-emption rights to subscribe to warrants and new shares for existing shareholders' are deviated from.

If and to the extent that warrants are reissued, the Board of Directors is authorised during the period until 1 April 2020 to resolve on the related capital increase by a nominal value of up to DKK 3,350,020 in one or more portions by cash contribution at a subscription price and on such other terms as the Board of Directors may determine without pre-emption right for the existing shareholders.

The new shares issued based on issued, reused or reissued warrants shall from the time of subscription have the same rights as existing shares according to the Articles of Association. The new shares shall be negotiable instruments, shall be registered in the names of the holders, and shall be entered in the Company's register of shareholders. No restrictions in the transferability of the new shares shall apply and no shareholder shall be obliged to allow for their shares to be redeemed – in whole or in part. The new shares shall be eligible for dividends from the time of subscription.

In accordance with authorisations in Article 5b of the Articles of Association and, the Board of Directors has issued 450,300 warrants, providing the right to subscribe to a maximum of 450,300 shares, each with a nominal value of DKK 10 (a total nominal value of DKK 4,503,000), at a rate of DKK 260.2 per share of nominal value DKK 10.

Subscription for shares according to the awarded warrants can be made, wholly or partly, in periods of each 14 days (1) first time being after the publication of the Company's 2019 annual report; (2) second time being after the publication of the Company's quarterly report (Q1) for the first 3 months of 2020; (3) third time being after the publication of the Company's quarterly report (Q2) for the first 6 months of 2020; (4) fourth time being after the publication of the Company's quarterly report (Q3) for the first 9 months of 2020; (5) fifth time being after the publication of the Company's 2020 annual report; (6) sixth time being after the publication of the Company's quarterly report (Q1) for the first 3 months of 2021; (7) seventh time being after the publication of the Company's quarterly report (Q2) for the first 6 months of 2021; and/or (8) eighth time being after the publication of the Company's quarterly report (Q3) for the first 9 months of 2021. Warrants that are not exercised electronically in the first subscription period may be exercised in subsequent subscription periods, always provided that any warrants not exercised at the expiry of the last subscription period will lapse without notice and without compensation.

If a warrant holder holds inside information during the last subscription period, the warrant holder may ask the Board of Directors to be granted a right to exercise warrants during a period of 2 weeks after the first publication by the Company of a quarterly or annual report after the expiry of the last subscription period (an "Extraordinary Window"). In order to be granted a right to exercise warrants in an Extraordinary Window, the warrant holder shall prior to the expiry of the last subscription period make a written request to the Board of Directors and the Board of Directors will then on the basis thereof decide whether or not the warrant holder will be offered an Extraordinary Window. The Board of Directors is not obliged to offer a warrant holder an Extraordinary Window and any such decision shall be made in due consideration of the Remuneration Policy. The Board of Directors may decide to expand the subscription period by one or more Extraordinary Windows.

The existing shareholders of the Company do not have any pre-emption rights with regard to the Warrants or shares subscribed for pursuant thereto.

The warrants cannot be assigned or placed as collateral by the warrant holder to third party.

In the event that (i) a majority of the Company's shares is sold, meaning that at least a third of the Company's share capital is transferred to a third party (who may be an existing shareholder of the Company) or (ii) the Company is dissolved, including by merger or demerger, the Company's Board of Directors may decide:

That warrant holders must exercise all or part of the warrants that have been granted, whether they have vested or not, and transfer the shares on the same terms as the other transferring shareholders (or waive the right to such Warrants in which case they will lapse); or

That warrant holders will retain the warrants that have been granted on unchanged terms.

If, before the warrants have been exercised in full, a resolution is passed in the Company to increase the share capital, issue warrants, convertible debt instruments or other instruments, allowing subscription for shares at a price not lower than the market value, this will not affect the terms of the warrants. Nor will the terms of the warrants be affected by any resolution to increase the share capital in order to allow employees, consultants or directors of the Company or its subsidiaries to subscribe for shares at a price which is lower than the market value.

If, before the warrants have been exercised in full, a resolution is passed in the Company (i) to increase the share capital, issue warrants, convertible debt instruments or other instruments to any persons other than the employees, consultants or directors of the Company or its subsidiaries, allowing subscription for shares at a price which is lower than the market value, (ii) to reduce the Company's share capital to cover any loss, (iii) to reduce the Company's share capital to make distributions to the shareholders, or (iv) to carry out payment of dividend, and such change reduces or increases the potential gain on the warrants, the exercise price and/or the number of shares that may be subscribed for by the exercise of warrants must be adjusted to ensure that the potential gain on the warrants remains unchanged. If, before the warrants have been exercised in full, a resolution is passed to reduce the Company's share capital to make distributions to the shareholders, and such change does not reduce or increase the potential gain on the warrants, the exercise price and/or the number of shares that may be subscribed for by the exercise of warrants will not be adjusted. Warrants to employees of Bavarian Nordic Inc. are, however, subject to additional adjustment provisions.

For the exercise of awarded warrants, the Board of Directors has decided on an increase of the Company's share capital in one or more portions by a total nominal value of up to DKK 4,503,000 by cash payment at a price of DKK 260.2 per share of nominal value DKK 10 and without pre-emption right for the Company's existing shareholders. The details and terms for the issuance of shares have been established by the Board of Directors.

In each subscription period, the Company may at its discretion decide that the warrant holder shall exercise his/her warrants by full or partial settlement in treasury shares rather than subscribing for new shares. Settlement in treasury shares may be effected by:

- a) The Company delivering one (1) treasury share of nominally DKK 10 for each exercised warrant against the warrant holder's payment of consideration in an amount equivalent to the subscription price; or
- b) The Company delivering a number of treasury shares with an aggregate market value corresponding to the difference between (i) the aggregate market value of the number of shares that would have been subscribed for under the exercised warrants and (ii) the aggregate subscription price of such warrants. If the difference between the aggregate market value of the shares and the aggregate subscription price does not correspond to the market value of a whole number of treasury shares, the number of treasury shares to be delivered by the Company shall be rounded up or down to the nearest whole number. For the purpose of this subsection b), the market value of the shares in the Company shall be determined based on the average market price (closing price) of the shares in the Company as quoted on the Danish Stock Exchange Nasdaq Copenhagen over the last five (5) business days prior to expiry of the relevant subscription period.

If the Company decides to exercise the right to settlement in treasury shares, the Company must notify the warrant holder hereof before expiry of the subscription period. If the Company decides settlement in treasury shares as described in subsection b) above, the warrant holder shall not pay the subscription price for the shares under the warrants that are being settled in treasury shares and any part of such subscription price already paid by the warrant holder to the Company will be repaid to the warrant holder within 30 days after expiry of the relevant subscription period.

The Board of Directors may during the period ending 31 December 2017 in one or more portions reuse or reissue any lapsed and unexercised warrants issued in accordance with this section. Reuse is to be construed as the Board of Directors' entitlement to let another party enter into an existing agreement on warrants. Reissue is to be construed as the Board of Directors' option to reissue new warrants, under the same authorisation, if previously issued warrants have lapsed.

The warrants may be reused or reissued to the management and employees of the Company or its subsidiaries, including consultants and the Board of Directors of the Company. Warrants may be reissued for the subscription of shares by cash contribution at a subscription price and on such other terms as the Board of Directors may determine in accordance with the original authorisation. Any issuance of warrants to the management shall be made in accordance with the Company's policy for incentive remuneration, prepared in accordance with section 139 of the Danish Companies Act and approved by the general meeting, cf. Article 17a of the Articles of Association.

Holders of warrants shall have pre-emption right to subscribe for the shares issued based on the warrants, meaning that the pre-emption rights to subscribe to warrants and new shares for existing shareholders' are deviated from.

If and to the extent that warrants are reissued, the Board of Directors is authorised during the period until 1 April 2021 to resolve on the related capital increase by a nominal value of up to DKK 4,503,000 in one or more portions by cash contribution at a subscription price and on such other terms as the Board of Directors may determine without pre-emption right for the existing shareholders.

The new shares issued based on issued, reused or reissued warrants shall from the time of subscription have the same rights as existing shares according to the Articles of Association. The new shares shall be negotiable instruments, shall be registered in the names of the holders, and shall be entered in the Company's register of shareholders. No restrictions in the transferability of the new shares shall apply and no shareholder shall be obliged to allow for their shares to be redeemed – in whole or in part. The new shares shall be eligible for dividends from the time of subscription.

Warrants that are not exercised electronically in the first subscription period may be exercised in subsequent subscription periods, always provided that any warrants not exercised at the expiry of the last subscription period will lapse without notice and without compensation.

If a warrant holder holds inside information during the last subscription period, the warrant holder may ask the Board of Directors to be granted a right to exercise warrants during a period of 2 weeks after the first publication by the Company of a quarterly or annual report after the expiry of the last subscription period (an "Extraordinary Window"). In order to be granted a right to exercise warrants in an Extraordinary Window, the warrant holder shall prior to the expiry of the last subscription period make a written request to the Board of Directors and the Board of Directors will then on the basis thereof decide whether or not the warrant holder will be offered an Extraordinary Window. The Board of Directors is not obliged to offer a warrant holder an Extraordinary Window and any such decision shall be made in due consideration of the Remuneration Policy. The Board of Directors may decide to expand the subscription period by one or more Extraordinary Windows.

The existing shareholders of the Company do not have any pre-emption rights with regard to the Warrants or shares subscribed for pursuant thereto.

The warrants cannot be assigned or placed as collateral by the warrant holder to third party.

If, before the warrants have been exercised in full, a resolution is passed in the Company to increase the share capital, issue warrants, convertible debt instruments or other instruments, allowing subscription for shares at a price not lower than the market value, this will not affect the terms of the warrants. Nor will the terms of the warrants be affected by any resolution to increase the share capital in order to allow employees, consultants or directors of the Company or its subsidiaries to subscribe for shares at a price which is lower than the market value.

If, before the warrants have been exercised in full, a resolution is passed to reduce the Company's share capital to make distributions to the shareholders, and such change does not reduce or increase the potential gain on the warrants, the exercise price and/or the number of shares that may be subscribed for by the exercise of warrants will not be adjusted. Warrants to employees of Bavarian Nordic Inc. are, however, subject to additional adjustment provisions.

The Board of Directors may during the period ending 31 December 2018 in one or more portions reuse or reissue any lapsed and unexercised warrants issued in accordance with this section. Of the 535,136 warrants, 33,134 of the warrants have been reissued under Section 15 of this Appendix 1.

Subscription for shares according to the awarded warrants can be made, wholly or partly, in periods of each 2 weeks (1) first time being after the publication of the Company's annual report for 2021; (2) second time being after the publication of the Company's quarterly report (Q1) for the first 3 months of 2022; (3) third time being after the publication of the Company's quarterly report (Q2) for the first 6 months of 2022; (4) fourth time being after the publication of the Company's quarterly report (Q3) for the first 9 months of 2022; (5) fifth time being after the publication of the Company's annual report for 2022; (6) sixth time being after the publication of the Company's quarterly report (Q1) for the first 3 months of 2023; (7) seventh time being after the publication of the Company's quarterly report (Q2) for the first 6 months of 2023; and/or (8) eighth time being after the publication of the Company's quarterly report (Q3) for the first 9 months of 2023. Warrants that are not exercised electronically in the first subscription period may be exercised in subsequent subscription periods, always provided that any warrants not exercised at the expiry of the last subscription period will lapse without notice and without compensation.

If a warrant holder holds inside information during the last subscription period, the warrant holder may ask the Board of Directors to be granted a right to exercise warrants during a period of 2 weeks after the first publication by the Company of a quarterly or annual report after the expiry of the last subscription period (an "Extraordinary Window"). In order to be granted a right to exercise warrants in an Extraordinary Window, the warrant holder shall prior to the expiry of the last subscription period make a written request to the Board of Directors and the Board of Directors will then on the basis thereof decide whether or not the warrant holder will be offered an Extraordinary Window. The Board of Directors is not obliged to offer a warrant holder an Extraordinary Window and any such decision shall be made in due consideration of the Remuneration Policy. The Board of Directors may decide to expand the subscription period by one or more Extraordinary Windows.

The existing shareholders of the Company do not have any pre-emption rights with regard to the Warrants or shares subscribed for pursuant thereto.

The warrants cannot be assigned or placed as collateral by the warrant holder to third party.

In the event that (i) a majority of the Company's shares is sold, meaning that at least a third of the Company's share capital is transferred to a third party (who may be an existing shareholder of the Company) or (ii) the Company is dissolved, including by merger or demerger, the Company's Board of Directors may decide:

That warrant holders must exercise all or part of the warrants that have been granted, whether they have vested or not, and transfer the shares on the same terms as the other transferring shareholders (or waive the right to such Warrants in which case they will lapse); or

That warrant holders will retain the warrants that have been granted on unchanged terms.

If, before the warrants have been exercised in full, a resolution is passed in the Company to increase the share capital, issue warrants, convertible debt instruments or other instruments, allowing subscription for shares at a price not lower than the market value, this will not affect the terms of the warrants. Nor will the terms of the warrants be affected by any resolution to increase the share capital in order to allow employees, consultants or directors of the Company or its subsidiaries to subscribe for shares at a price which is lower than the market value.

If, before the warrants have been exercised in full, a resolution is passed in the Company (i) to increase the share capital, issue warrants, convertible debt instruments or other instruments to any persons other than the employees, consultants or directors of the Company or its subsidiaries, allowing subscription for shares at a price which is lower than the market value, (ii) to reduce the Company's share capital to cover any loss, (iii) to reduce the Company's share capital to make distributions to the shareholders, or (iv) to carry out payment of dividend, and such change reduces or increases the potential gain on the warrants, the exercise price and/or the number of shares that may be subscribed for by the exercise of warrants must be adjusted to ensure that the potential gain on the warrants remains unchanged. If, before the warrants have been exercised in full, a resolution is passed to reduce the Company's share capital to make distributions to the shareholders, and such change does not reduce or increase the potential gain on the warrants, the exercise price and/or the number of shares that may be subscribed for by the exercise of warrants will not be adjusted. Warrants to employees of Bavarian Nordic Inc. are, however, subject to additional adjustment provisions.

For the exercise of awarded warrants, the Board of Directors has decided on an increase of the Company's share capital in one or more portions by a total nominal value of up to DKK 5,351,360 by cash payment at a price of DKK 179.6 per share of nominal value DKK 10 and without pre-emption right for the Company's existing shareholders. The details and terms for the issuance of shares have been established by the Board of Directors.

In each subscription period, the Company may at its discretion decide that the warrant holder shall exercise his/her warrants by full or partial settlement in treasury shares rather than subscribing for new shares. Settlement in treasury shares may be effected by:

- a) The Company delivering one (1) treasury share of nominally DKK 10 for each exercised warrant against the warrant holder's payment of consideration in an amount equivalent to the subscription price; or
- b) The Company delivering a number of treasury shares with an aggregate market value corresponding to the difference between (i) the aggregate market value of the number of shares that would have been subscribed for under the exercised warrants and (ii) the aggregate subscription price of such warrants. If the difference between the aggregate market value of the shares and the aggregate subscription price does not correspond to the market value of a whole number of treasury shares, the number of treasury shares to be delivered by the Company shall be rounded up or down to the nearest whole number. For the purpose of this subsection b), the market value of the shares in the Company shall be determined based on the average market price (closing price) of the shares in the Company as quoted on the Danish Stock Exchange Nasdaq Copenhagen over the last five (5) business days prior to expiry of the relevant subscription period.

If the Company decides to exercise the right to settlement in treasury shares, the Company must notify the warrant holder hereof before expiry of the subscription period. If the Company decides settlement in treasury shares as described in subsection b) above, the warrant holder shall not pay the subscription price for the shares under the warrants that are being settled in treasury shares and any part of such subscription price already paid by the warrant holder to the Company will be repaid to the warrant holder within 30 days after expiry of the relevant subscription period.

The Board of Directors may during the period ending 31 December 2019 in one or more portions reuse or reissue any lapsed and unexercised warrants issued in accordance with this section. Reuse is to be construed as the Board of Directors' entitlement to let another party enter into an existing agreement on warrants. Reissue is to be construed as the Board of Directors' option to reissue new warrants, under the same authorisation, if previously issued warrants have lapsed.

The warrants may be reused or reissued to the management and employees of the Company or its subsidiaries. Warrants may be reissued for the subscription of shares by cash contribution at a subscription price and on such other terms as the Board of Directors may determine in accordance with the original authorisation. Any issuance of warrants to the management shall be made in accordance with the Company's policy for incentive remuneration, prepared in accordance with section 139 of the Danish Companies Act and approved by the general meeting, cf. Article 17a of the Articles of Association. Of the 535,136 originally issued warrants, 68,627 of the warrants have lapsed due to employees' resignation and have been reissued as set out in Section 17 of this Appendix 1.

Holders of warrants shall have pre-emption right to subscribe for the shares issued based on the warrants, meaning that the pre-emption rights to subscribe to warrants and new shares for existing shareholders' are deviated from.

If and to the extent that warrants are reissued, the Board of Directors is authorised during the period until 1 April 2023 to resolve on the related capital increase by a nominal value of up to DKK 5,351,360 in one or more portions by cash contribution at a subscription price and on such other terms as the Board of Directors may determine without pre-emption right for the existing shareholders.

The new shares issued based on issued, reused or reissued warrants shall from the time of subscription have the same rights as existing shares according to the Articles of Association. The new shares shall be negotiable instruments, shall be registered in the names of the holders, and shall be entered in the Company's register of shareholders. No restrictions in the transferability of the new shares shall apply and no shareholder shall be obliged to allow for their shares to be redeemed – in whole or in part. The new shares shall be eligible for dividends from the time of subscription.

Section 17

In accordance with authorisations in Article 5b of the Articles of Association and Section 16 of this Appendix 1, on 7 November 2019 the Board of Directors has issued and reissued 564,585 warrants, providing the right to subscribe to a maximum of 564,585 shares, each with a nominal value of DKK 10 (a total nominal value of DKK 5,645,850), at a rate of DKK 185.4 per share of nominal value DKK 10. Of the 564,585 warrants, 68,627 of the warrants have been reissued under Section 16 of this Appendix 1.

Subscription for shares according to the awarded warrants can be made, wholly or partly, in periods of each 2 weeks (1) first time being after the publication of the Company's annual report for 2022; (2) second time being after the publication of the Company's quarterly report (Q1) for the first 3 months of 2023; (3) third time being after the publication of the Company's quarterly report (Q2) for the first 6 months of 2023; (4) fourth time being after the publication of the Company's quarterly report (Q3) for the first 9 months of 2023; (5) fifth time being after the publication of the Company's annual report for 2023; (6) sixth time being after the publication of the Company's quarterly report (Q1) for the first 3 months of 2024; (7) seventh time being after the publication of the Company's quarterly report (Q2) for the first 6 months of 2024; and/or (8) eighth time being after the publication of the Company's quarterly report (Q3) for the first 9 months of 2024. Warrants that are not exercised electronically in the first subscription period may be exercised in subsequent subscription periods, always provided that any warrants not exercised at the expiry of the last subscription period will lapse without notice and without compensation.

If a warrant holder holds inside information at any time during the last subscription period, the Board of Directors may grant such a warrant holder a right to exercise warrants during a period of 2 weeks after the first publication by the Company of a quarterly or annual report after the expiry of the last subscription period (an "Extraordinary Window"). The Board of Directors is not obliged to offer a warrant holder an Extraordinary Window and any such decision shall be made in due consideration of the Remuneration Policy. The Board of Directors may decide to expand the subscription period by one or more Extraordinary Windows.

The existing shareholders of the Company do not have any pre-emption rights with regard to the Warrants or shares subscribed for pursuant thereto.

The warrants cannot be assigned or placed as collateral by the warrant holder to third party.

In the event that (i) a majority of the Company's shares is sold, meaning that at least a third of the Company's share capital is transferred to a third party (who may be an existing shareholder of the Company) or (ii) the Company is dissolved, including by merger or demerger, the Company's Board of Directors may decide:

That warrant holders must exercise all or part of the warrants that have been granted, whether they have vested or not, and transfer the shares on the same terms as the other transferring shareholders (or waive the right to such Warrants in which case they will lapse); or

That warrant holders will retain the warrants that have been granted on unchanged terms.

If, before the warrants have been exercised in full, a resolution is passed in the Company to increase the share capital, issue warrants, convertible debt instruments or other instruments, allowing subscription for shares at a price not lower than the market value, this will not affect the terms of the warrants. Nor will the terms of the warrants be affected by any resolution to increase the share capital in order to allow employees, consultants or directors of the Company or its subsidiaries to subscribe for shares at a price which is lower than the market value.

If, before the warrants have been exercised in full, a resolution is passed in the Company (i) to increase the share capital, issue warrants, convertible debt instruments or other instruments to any persons other than the employees, consultants or directors of the Company or its subsidiaries, allowing subscription for shares at a price which is lower than the market value, (ii) to reduce the Company's share capital to cover any loss, (iii) to reduce the Company's share capital to make distributions to the shareholders, or (iv) to carry out payment of dividend, and such change reduces or increases the potential gain on the warrants, the exercise price and/or the number of shares that may be subscribed for by the exercise of warrants must be adjusted to ensure that the potential gain on the warrants remains unchanged. If, before the warrants have been exercised in full, a resolution is passed to reduce the Company's share capital to make distributions to the shareholders, and such change does not reduce or increase the potential gain on the warrants, the exercise price and/or the number of shares that may be subscribed for by the exercise of warrants will not be adjusted. Warrants to employees of Bavarian Nordic Inc. are, however, subject to additional adjustment provisions.

For the exercise of awarded warrants, the Board of Directors has decided on an increase of the Company's share capital in one or more portions by a total nominal value of up to DKK 5,645,850 by cash payment at a price of DKK 185.4 per share of nominal value DKK 10 and without pre-emption right for the Company's existing shareholders. The details and terms for the issuance of shares have been established by the Board of Directors.

In each subscription period, the Company may at its discretion decide that the warrant holder shall exercise his/her warrants by full or partial settlement in treasury shares rather than subscribing for new shares. Settlement in treasury shares may be effected by:

- a) The Company delivering one (1) treasury share of nominally DKK 10 for each exercised warrant against the warrant holder's payment of consideration in an amount equivalent to the subscription price; or
- b) The Company delivering a number of treasury shares with an aggregate market value corresponding to the difference between (i) the aggregate market value of the number of shares that would have been subscribed for under the exercised warrants and (ii) the aggregate subscription price of such warrants. If the difference between the aggregate market value of the shares and the aggregate subscription price does not correspond to the market value of a whole number of treasury shares, the number of treasury shares to be delivered by the Company shall be rounded up or down to the nearest whole number. For the purpose of this subsection b), the market value of the shares in the Company shall be determined based on the average market price (closing price) of the shares in the Company as quoted on the Danish Stock Exchange Nasdaq Copenhagen over the last five (5) business days prior to expiry of the relevant subscription period.

If the Company decides to exercise the right to settlement in treasury shares, the Company must notify the warrant holder hereof before expiry of the subscription period. If the Company decides to settle in treasury shares as described in subsection b) above, the warrant holder shall not pay the subscription price for the shares under the warrants that are being settled in treasury shares and any part of such subscription price already paid by the warrant holder to the Company will be repaid to the warrant holder within 30 days after expiry of the relevant subscription period.

The Board of Directors may during the period ending 31 December 2020 in one or more portions reuse or reissue any lapsed and unexercised warrants issued in accordance with this section. Reuse is to be construed as the Board of Directors' entitlement to let another party enter into an existing agreement on warrants. Reissue is to be construed as the Board of Directors' option to reissue new warrants, under the same authorisation, if previously issued warrants have lapsed.

The warrants may be reused or reissued to the management and employees of the Company or its subsidiaries. Warrants may be reissued for the subscription of shares by cash contribution at a subscription price and on such other terms as the Board of Directors may determine in accordance with the original authorisation. Any issuance of warrants to the management shall be made in accordance with the Company's remuneration policy for incentive remuneration, prepared in accordance with section 139 of the Danish Companies Act and approved by the general meeting, cf. Article 17a of the Articles of Association.

Holders of warrants shall have pre-emption right to subscribe for the shares issued based on the warrants, meaning that the pre-emption rights to subscribe to warrants and new shares for existing shareholders' are deviated from.

If and to the extent that warrants are reissued, the Board of Directors is authorised during the period until 1 April 2024 to resolve on the related capital increase by a nominal value of up to DKK 5,645,850 in one or more portions by cash contribution at a subscription price and on such other terms as the Board of Directors may determine without pre-emption right for the existing shareholders.

The new shares issued based on issued, reused or reissued warrants shall from the time of subscription have the same rights as existing shares according to the Articles of Association. The new shares shall be negotiable instruments, shall be registered in the names of the holders, and shall be entered in the Company's register of shareholders. No restrictions in the transferability of the new shares shall apply and no shareholder shall be obliged to allow for their shares to be redeemed – in whole or in part. The new shares shall be eligible for dividends from the time of subscription.

Section 18

In accordance with authorisations in Article 5b of the Articles of Association, on 6 January 2020 the Board of Directors has issued 23,763 warrants, providing the right to subscribe to a maximum of 23,763 shares, each with a nominal value of DKK 10 (a total nominal value of DKK 237,630), at a rate of DKK 197 per share of nominal value DKK 10.

Subscription for shares according to the awarded warrants can be made, wholly or partly, in periods of each 2 weeks (1) first time being after the publication of the Company's annual report for 2022; (2) second time being after the publication of the Company's quarterly report (Q1) for the first 3 months of 2023; (3) third time being after the publication of the Company's quarterly report (Q2) for the first 6 months of 2023; (4) fourth time being after the publication of the Company's quarterly report (Q3) for the first 9 months of 2023; (5) fifth time being after the publication of the Company's annual report for 2023; (6) sixth time being after the publication of the Company's quarterly report (Q1) for the first 3 months of 2024; (7) seventh time being after the publication of the Company's quarterly report (Q2) for the first 6 months of 2024; and/or (8) eighth time being after the publication of the Company's quarterly report (Q3) for the first 9 months of 2024. Warrants that are not exercised electronically in the first subscription period may be exercised in subsequent subscription periods, always provided that any warrants not exercised at the expiry of the last subscription period will lapse without notice and without compensation.

If the warrant holder holds inside information at any time during the last subscription period, the Board of Directors may grant the warrant holder a right to exercise warrants during a period of 2 weeks after the first publication by the Company of a quarterly or annual report after the expiry of the last subscription period (an "Extraordinary Window"). The Board of Directors is not obliged to offer the warrant holder an Extraordinary Window and any such decision shall be made in due consideration of the Remuneration Policy. The Board of Directors may decide to expand the subscription period by one or more Extraordinary Windows.

The existing shareholders of the Company do not have any pre-emption rights with regard to the Warrants or shares subscribed for pursuant thereto.

The warrants cannot be assigned or placed as collateral by the warrant holder to third party.

In the event that (i) a majority of the Company's shares is sold, meaning that at least a third of the Company's share capital is transferred to a third party (who may be an existing shareholder of the Company) or (ii) the Company is dissolved, including by merger or demerger, the Company's Board of Directors may decide:

That the warrant holder must exercise all or part of the warrants that have been granted, whether they have vested or not, and transfer the shares on the same terms as the other transferring shareholders (or waive the right to such Warrants in which case they will lapse); or

That the warrant holder will retain the warrants that have been granted on unchanged terms.

If, before the warrants have been exercised in full, a resolution is passed in the Company to increase the share capital, issue warrants, convertible debt instruments or other instruments, allowing subscription for shares at a price not lower than the market value, this will not affect the terms of the warrants. Nor will the terms of the warrants be affected by any resolution to increase the share capital in order to allow employees, consultants or directors of the Company or its subsidiaries to subscribe for shares at a price which is lower than the market value.

If, before the warrants have been exercised in full, a resolution is passed in the Company (i) to increase the share capital, issue warrants, convertible debt instruments or other instruments to any persons other than the employees, consultants or directors of the Company or its subsidiaries, allowing subscription for shares at a price which is lower than the market value, (ii) to reduce the Company's share capital to cover any loss, (iii) to reduce the Company's share capital to make distributions to the shareholders, or (iv) to carry out payment of dividend, and such change reduces or increases the potential gain on the warrants, the exercise price and/or the number of shares that may be subscribed for by the exercise of warrants must be adjusted to ensure that the potential gain on the warrants remains unchanged. If, before the warrants have been exercised in full, a resolution is passed to reduce the Company's share capital to make distributions to the shareholders, and such change does not reduce or increase the potential gain on the warrants, the exercise price and/or the number of shares that may be subscribed for by the exercise of warrants will not be adjusted.

For the exercise of awarded warrants, the Board of Directors has decided on an increase of the Company's share capital in one or more portions by a total nominal value of up to DKK 237,630 by cash payment at a price of DKK 197 per share of nominal value DKK 10 and without pre-emption right for the Company's existing shareholders. The details and terms for the issuance of shares have been established by the Board of Directors.

In each subscription period, the Company may at its discretion decide that the warrant holder shall exercise his warrants by full or partial settlement in treasury shares rather than subscribing for new shares. Settlement in treasury shares may be effected by:

If the difference between the aggregate market value of the shares and the aggregate subscription price does not correspond to the market value of a whole number of treasury shares, the number of treasury shares to be delivered by the Company shall be rounded up or down to the nearest whole number. For the purpose of this subsection b), the market value of the shares in the Company shall be determined based on the average market price (closing price) of the shares in the Company as quoted on the Danish Stock Exchange Nasdaq Copenhagen over the last five (5) business days prior to expiry of the relevant subscription period.

If the Company decides to exercise the right to settlement in treasury shares, the Company must notify the warrant holder hereof before expiry of the subscription period. If the Company decides on settlement in treasury shares as described in subsection b) above, the warrant holder shall not pay the subscription price for the shares under the warrants that are being settled in treasury shares and any part of such subscription price already paid by the warrant holder to the Company will be repaid to the warrant holder within 30 days after expiry of the relevant subscription period.

The Board of Directors may during the period ending 31 December 2020 in one or more portions reuse or reissue any lapsed and unexercised warrants issued in accordance with this section. Reuse is to be construed as the Board of Directors' entitlement to let another party enter into an existing agreement on warrants. The new shares issued based on issued, reused or reissued warrants shall from the time of subscription have the same rights as existing shares according to the Articles of Association. The new shares shall be negotiable instruments, shall be registered in the names of the holders, and shall be entered in the Company's register of shareholders. No restrictions in the transferability of the new shares shall apply and no shareholder shall be obliged to allow for their shares to be redeemed – in whole or in part. The new shares shall be eligible for dividends from the time of subscription.
