Description of the main characteristics of the internal control and risk management systems associated with the financial reporting process

1. Description of the control environment

Tulikivi's business idea and values

The Tulikivi Group specialises in fireplaces, sauna heaters and interior stone products that are of a high quality and made from natural materials. Our customers appreciate the environmentally friendly and aesthetically pleasing nature of our products, the comfort created by these products and the benefits of wood heating. Tulikivi is a versatile company that appreciates its customers, entrepreneurship and fair play.

Environmental Policy

Engaging in mining activities requires the forming of a mining concession and an environmental permit. Mining operations are regulated by the Mining Act and environmental legislation. The director in charge of quarrying is responsible for ensuring that mining permits are valid and up to date.

Tulikivi's environmental strategy is geared towards systematic progress in environmental efforts in specified sub-areas. The aim of environmental work is to improve the company's ability to use natural resources sparingly and to manage processes and products in a way that minimises their environmental loading. The Group complies with the environmental legislation and norms that concern its operations, and, through the continuous improvement of Tulikivi's operations, it engages in preventive environmental work. The Group acknowledges and is aware of its responsibility as an environmental operator.

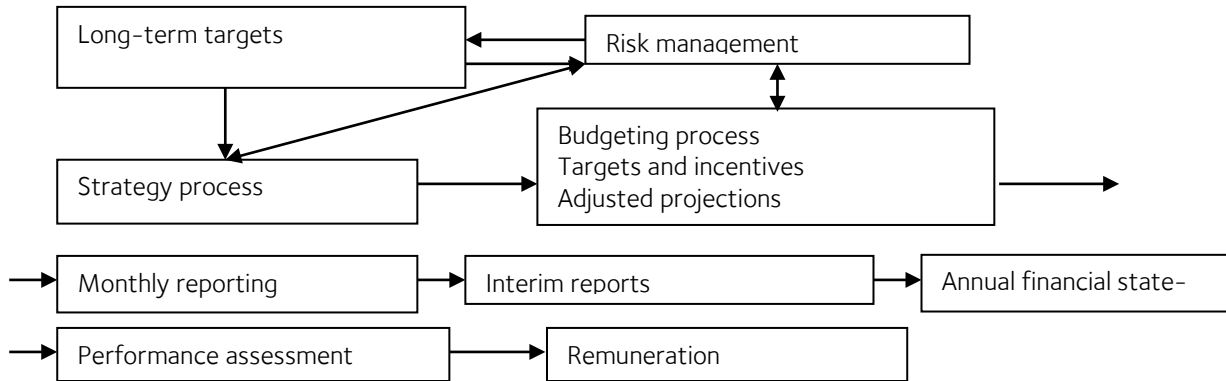

Planning and monitoring processes

The Group plans its operations and ensures the efficiency of the operations during its annual strategy planning and budgeting process. The implementation of the plans and changes in the operating environment are monitored through monthly, quarterly and annual reporting.

In the Tulikivi Group, risk analysis and risk management form part of the regular strategic planning process performed each year and also part of the operational management. The purpose of internal control and risk management is to ensure that all operations are efficient and profitable, based on reliable information and compliant with provisions and operating policies.

Control responsibilities

Based on the organisational structure and job descriptions, powers and responsibilities are delegated to persons with budgetary responsibility and to those in charge within the line organisation. Compliance with laws and regulations is ensured through the operational handbook and other internal guidelines.

In 2018 the focus of operations was on optimising the use of information systems and improving the quality of reporting. The enterprise resources planning system contains the necessary internal control mechanisms.

14.2.2019

Internal control is performed by the parties mentioned above, using external specialists when needed. In 2018 auditing focused on sales functions, controls regarding the purchasing process and payment transactions, and inventories and assets. In view of the Group’s size and the nature of its activities, it has not been deemed necessary to appoint an internal auditor. The Board may choose to use an external expert in certain fields.

Risk management is part of the company’s control system. The purpose of risk management is to ensure that business risks are identified and constantly monitored and evaluated as part of normal business operations.

2. Risk assessment

The purpose of risk management is to ensure that the Tulikivi Group’s business risks are identified and managed as effectively as possible. This allows the Group to achieve its strategic and financial goals. All goals have been assigned risk limits. If these risk limits are exceeded, or if other divergences from operating plans so require, the person in charge will initiate enhanced risk management procedures. Regular reporting indicates when financial risk limits have been exceeded.

3. Reporting system and the related internal control and risk management

In accordance with the reporting system, the Managing Director reports monthly to the Board of Directors on the operations and performance of the Group and its various business units and on any divergence from the budget and adjusted projections. The Managing Director also reports quarterly to the Board of Directors on the operating profit based on the interim reports, semi-annual reports or annual financial statements. The Managing Director must also report immediately on fundamental changes in the operating environment. The relevant persons in charge report according to the internal reporting system.

The parent company’s Director of Finance and Administration is responsible for Group-level reporting. The parent company’s financial department handles accounts and group-level accounting for domestic companies. The accounts and reporting of foreign subsidiaries are handled locally, using qualified accounting firms or external experts. The parent company’s auditors compare the contents of the Russian subsidiary’s Russian reporting with the financial reporting delivered to the parent company for the consolidated financial statements.

Financial reporting guidelines, competence development, reliable information systems, standard control mechanisms and expanded audits ensure accuracy in reporting. Any reported divergences from the budget and operating plans call for closer analysis to find the underlying causes.

The Director of Finance and Administration and the auditors monitor the accuracy of financial reporting. Periodic information system evaluations also serve this purpose. The Group seeks to ensure operational compliance with laws and regulations by using external experts and services.

To ensure the effectiveness of financial reporting, the Tulikivi Group has guidelines that all units must comply with. Organisational competence is ensured through briefings and training. Accounting schedules and any changes to accounting policies and laws are reviewed in preparatory meetings related to annual financial statements.

The Audit Committee evaluates the functionality of the financial reporting system quarterly on the basis of performance analyses of profit outlooks and assessment of the reporting accuracy. The evaluation also includes studying the risks associated with malpractice and illegal activity. The auditors audit the contents of the deviation reporting during the extended audit. The Management Group members monitor the accuracy of result reporting on a monthly basis and, within their respective areas of responsibility evaluate the reasons for any deviation.

4. Communications

The guidelines for reporting and accounting principles are provided to all financial personnel and those who produce information and auditing results for the financial system. The Managing Director reports any defects observed in the field of internal control, including the accuracy of reporting, to the Audit Committee. In its meetings, the Audit Committee processes the audit reports and extended audit reports and the statements for those reports provided by the persons in charge. Moreover, the Audit Committee reports to the Board about any observations it has made and any guidelines or recommendations it has supplied to the organisation.

The Managing Director is responsible for communications at the Tulikivi Group. The Group's communications guidelines cover both internal and external communications. They also specify the persons with the right to speak on behalf of the company.

5. Monitoring

The efficiency of internal control is evaluated regularly in conjunction with management and governance and separately on the basis of audit reports. In financial reporting, continuous monitoring measures include comparing goals with actual results, implementing reconciliations and monitoring the regularity of operational reports.

The Board of Directors' annual plan includes planning and monitoring meetings. The Group's information systems are largely well-established, and external experts regularly evaluate their reliability.

6. The company's insiders and insider administration

The company complies with the valid NASDAQ OMX Helsinki Guidelines for Insiders. The members of the Tulikivi Corporation Board of Directors and Management Group have been specified as managers as referred to in the Market Abuse Regulation. A Tulikivi manager may not trade in Tulikivi shares during the 30 days preceding financial results announcements. Managers and persons closely related to them must notify the company and the Financial Supervisory Authority of all transactions made on their own account concerning the company's financial instruments. The company must publish such information in a stock exchange release. Persons and parties with access to specific insider information are entered in a project-specific insider list. A person or party entered in a project-specific insider list may not engage in trading while they are on the list.

14.2.2019

7. Auditing

In 2018, the auditor was paid EUR 54,000 for the audit and EUR 6,000 for services not associated with the audit.
