2. Introduction

In 2025 the Board of Directors (in its role as Remuneration Committee) reviewed the remuneration policy of Executive Management to ensure the framework remains appropriate for our business model and that it supports our future ambitions.

The Board of Directors found that the remuneration policy supported the achievement of SKAKO's strategy.

The overall objectives of the Remuneration Policy are:

- Ensuring alignment between the interests of the members of the Board of Directors and Executive Management, and those of the shareholders.
- Promoting the long-term interests and sustainability of SKAKO and supporting SKAKO's strategy in the short and long term.

The remuneration of the Board of Directors is comprised of a fixed fee.

The remuneration of the Executive Management is comprised of the following remuneration components:

- Fixed base salary
- Pension contributions
- Standard employee benefits, including a company car
- Cash bonuses (the Short-term Incentive Program (STIP))
