

Conditional Investment Decision taken for extension of EemsEnergyTerminal

Rotterdam, the Netherlands, 1 June 2026

The conditional Final Investment Decision (cFID) marks a major milestone in the continuation of the LNG infrastructure.

With this decision, shareholders Gasunie and Vopak are taking an important step towards a definitive Final Investment Decision (FID), which is subject to obtaining the necessary permits. EemsEnergyTerminal has concluded contracts with customers who will supply liquefied natural gas (LNG) to the terminal during the period 2028-2036.
