

Eolus announces the sale of 68 MW wind power to Commerz Real AG Group

Hässleholm, Sweden, September 29th, 2020

Eolus has signed an agreement with Commerz Real regarding the sale of three wind farms in southern Sweden with a total installed capacity of 68 MW. The preliminary purchase price for the wind farms amounts to EUR 82.5 million.

The transaction covers all the shares in the three project companies that hold the project rights for the wind farms Boarp (24 MW) in Vaggeryd municipality, Dällebo (26 MW) in Ulricehamn municipality and Rosenskog (18 MW) in Falköping municipality all located in southern Sweden. Eolus will construct the wind farms and Commerz Real will initially fund the construction via an all equity investment. The wind farms are expected to be delivered to Commerz Real in the autumn of 2023.

-The wind farms contribute to our international diversification and are an important step for further growth. They show our dedication to strengthen our position in the international renewable investment market says Jan-Peter Müller Head of Infrastructure Investments at Commerz Real.

As part of the agreement Eolus has been entrusted to provide technical, operational and administrative services for the wind farms to maximize outcome and production from the facilities.

-We are excited about this deal with Commerz Real providing a portfolio of attractive projects in Southern Sweden. By bundling these high-quality projects, we have created a good investment opportunity for a new investor of ours. We are also very pleased with the trust that Commerz Real show Eolus by letting us provide technical, operational and administrative services for this investment says Eolus COO Marcus Landelin.

The transaction is subject to fulfillment of a number of conditions before closing.
