

Atos ranked in Top 50 Most Sustainable Companies in the World with SEAL 2022 Business Sustainability Award (BSA)

Paris, March 8, 2023 - Atos is delighted to have been honored as a winner of a 2022 SEAL Business Sustainability Award, for its leadership, transparency, and commitment to sustainable business practices.

The 2022 SEAL Organizational Impact Award recognizes overall corporate sustainability performance and represents the 50 most sustainable companies globally. Winners were selected by combining two premier ESG data sets - the CDP A-List™ and the Corporate Sustainability Assessment (CSA, now part of S&P Global ESG Scores™).

With this award, Atos is adding yet another global recognition for its sustainability and ESG practices, after having been ranked among the top 1% of the IT Services industry with a score of 85/100 in the 2022 S&P Global Corporate Sustainability Assessment (CSA) 2022; received a 'AAA' rating (on a scale of AAA-CCC) in the MSCI ESG Ratings assessment 2022; was rewarded a Platinum Award from EcoVadis; achieved a Prime status in the ESG assessment carried out by ISS in 2022; was selected on CDP's prestigious 'A List 2022' for tackling climate change and included in the Dow Jones Sustainability Indices (both the DJSI World and DJSI Europe) for the last eight consecutive years. Find out more about Atos' CSR program.

SEAL (Sustainability, Environmental Achievement & Leadership) Awards is an environmental advocacy organization that honors leadership through its business sustainability awards and environmental journalism awards while funding research and pursuing its own environmental impact campaigns.

SEAL Awards is not affiliated with the CDP, CSA, or S&P Global. The selection process for the SEAL Organizational Impact Award drew entirely upon publicly available information from each of the CDP and CSA.
