

The Remuneration Report 2020 (hereinafter referred to as the Report) of the public limited liability company INVL Baltic Farmland (hereinafter referred to as the Company or AB INVL Baltic Farmland) was prepared in compliance with the provisions of the Remuneration Policy approved by the decision of the Company's General Meeting of Shareholders dated 23 March 2020.

The Remuneration Policy of the Company is applicable to the Managers of the Company (the Chief Executive Officer and the members of the Board of the Company).

Brief overview of the Company's activities in 2020

AB INVL Baltic Farmland holds the shares of the private limited liability companies that invest in agricultural land. AB INVL Baltic Farmland holds a 100 % stake in 18 private limited liability companies which own approximately 3,000 ha of agricultural land in Lithuania. More than 98 % of the land holdings is leased to farmers and agricultural businesses.

On 30 June 2015, the companies, the land owners, and AB INVL Baltic Farmland signed a property administration agreement with INVL Farmland Management which administers the land plots owned by the companies in order to ensure the growth of income for the shareholders and to raise the value of the land holdings. On 28 December 2020, an amendment to the agreement was signed and the validity period of the property administration agreement was extended until 31 December 2025.

In 2020, AB INVL Baltic Farmland received income totalling EUR 649 thousand, whereas its audited net profit amounted to EUR 895 thousand. (In 2019, the consolidated net profit of the Company amounted to EUR 1.136 million and the Group's income totalled EUR 645 thousand). In the long-term, the Company seeks to earn a profit from the growth in land lease revenue and an increase in the land value. Based on the data of the property valuation carried out in the last quarter of 2020, the value of the land plots grew by 4.4 % during the year, up to EUR 15.36 million. The average value per hectare is EUR 4.96 thousand.

Corporate governance

AB INVL Baltic Farmland has a single-person management body – the Chief Executive Officer (Director) of the Company and a collegial management body – the Board. No Supervisory Council is formed at the Company.

Report on the remuneration of the Chief Executive Officer of the Company in 2020

The Chief Executive Officer (CEO) of the Company was paid a fixed monthly salary of EUR 170.15 under the employment contract. The norm of working time is 1 hour per day. The salary of the CEO of the Company was determined by the decision of the Board of 1 July 2015 and it has not been changed.

Accordingly, in 2020, the CEO of the Company was paid a fixed salary of EUR 2044. The fixed salary of the CEO of the Company accounted for 100 per cent of the remuneration since the appointment in 2015.

No other agreements on additional pension or retirement conditions were concluded with the CEO of the Company, the termination terms of the employment contract were not amended, and the payments related to the termination of the employment contract do not differ from those established in the applicable legislation.

No postponement of the remuneration was applied to the CEO of the Company, and the possibility of recovering the variable portion of the remuneration was not exercised.

The CEO of the Company did not obtain any indirect benefit from the Company, and no stock options were granted by the Company to the CEO.

The CEO of the Company did not receive remuneration from any company in which the Company holds more than 50 % of the shares.

In 2020, the salary to the CEO of the Company was paid without any derogation from the approved Remuneration Policy.

Report on the remuneration of the members of the Company's Board in 2020

The members of the Board of the Company may receive only the shares of profit allocated by the decision of the General Meeting of Shareholders under the procedure established by the law and the allocation of which is disclosed in the consolidated annual report of the Company.

Upon the allocation of the Company's profit for 2019 by the decision of the General Meeting of Shareholders dated 23 March 2020, no shares of profit were allocated to the members of the Company's Board. The members of the Company's Board or the companies controlled by them are the shareholders of the Company and together with other shareholders they receive dividends either directly or through the controlled companies.

No agreements were concluded with the members of the Company's Board on the basis of which they perform their duties.

The members of the Company's Board did not obtain any indirect benefit from the Company and they were not granted any stock options by the Company.

The members of the Company's Board did not receive any remuneration from any company in which the Company holds more than 50 % of its shares.

In 2020, no other payouts were made to the members of the Company's Board, and there were no derogations from the Remuneration Policy.

Information on the remuneration paid in 2016-2020, the operating results of the Company and their changes

During the period from 1 January 2016 until 31 December 2020, there were no other employees in the Company, except for the Chief Executive Officer of the Company who was paid a fixed salary; therefore, the Company is unable to provide information on the average salary of its employees or its changes. The table below contains the remuneration of the Company's management bodies and the Company's annual operating results and their changes over the last five years:

	2016	2017	2018	2019	2020
Amount of CEO remuneration*, EUR	1,917	1,969	2,046	2,043	2,044
Change in CEO remuneration, %	-5.94	2.71	3.91	-0.15	0.05
Annual bonuses to members of the board	-	-	-	-	-
Net profit of the Company, thousand. EUR	1 193	885	1 113	1 136	895
Change in the Company's net profit, %	42.4	-25.8	25.8	2.1	-21.2

* Since 2019 the gross salary amount was increased by 1.289 times because the employer's taxes were transferred to the employee under the requirements of the applicable legislation of the Republic of Lithuania. For the sake of comparability, the 2016-2018 amounts were recalculated using the coefficient. The differences in remuneration were caused by the time off work (vacation, sick leave).

The Chief Executive Officer of the Company was appointed on 1 July 2015; therefore, when calculating the change in the remuneration between 2016 and 2015, the remuneration in 2015 was multiplied by two.

Other important information

The Chief Executive Officer of the Company is paid a stable monthly salary. The Company has no approved policy under which the variable portion of the remuneration would be paid to its Managers.

The Remuneration Policy of the Company does not provide for any severance pay policy. The Company complies with the respective requirements of the applicable legislation related to severance pay.

The Company has no system establishing employee incentives or remuneration with the Company's shares.

By implementing the Remuneration Policy in 2020, the Company sought to achieve the following objectives:

- i. To ensure a competitive salary of the Managers corresponding with the Company's financial results;
- ii. To increase the Company's transparency and the accountability of its Managers and to provide conditions for its shareholders, potential investors and stakeholders to have a detailed and reliable view of the remuneration assigned to each Manager;
- iii. To avoid conflicts of interest and to ensure the proper implementation of the principles laid down in the Remuneration Policy.