

Delisting from Nasdaq First North Growth Market Stockholm effective October 22, 2021

Paris, October 6, 2021 – As announced in its press release of June 24, 2021, Atari SA, (“Atari” or the “Company”) has since submitted its application for delisting of the Company’s Swedish Depositary Receipts (SDRs), currently traded on Nasdaq First North Growth Market to Nasdaq Stockholm. The application has been accepted and Nasdaq Stockholm has published its decision (492/21) on September 24, 2021, announcing that the last day of trading for Atari SDRs will be October 22, 2021.

The Company wants to remind holders of SDRs that they can remain shareholders in Atari by converting their SDRs into ordinary shares of Atari SA, listed on Euronext Paris. To effectuate such conversion, the holders must contact the depository of the SDRs, Mangold Fondkommission. Further information about conversion of SDRs to ordinary shares is available at <https://www.mangold.se/aktuella-emissioner/>. The deadline to submit a request for conversion has been set by Mangold for November 1, 2021.

For holder of SDRs who do not request the conversion of their SDRs into ordinary shares before the cut-off date or who are unable to hold shares listed on foreign exchanges, Mangold will proceed with the sale on Euronext Paris of the Atari ordinary shares deposited with Mangold and credit the account holding Atari SDRs with the net proceeds of the sale after deduction of transaction and foreign exchange costs.
