

Brief overview of the career of Andris Jegers

Andris Jegers has been a sworn auditor since 1992. He started working at KPMG Estonian office in 1992, has been a partner and board member of KPMG Baltics since 1998 and the company's CEO since 2005. His responsibilities at include assurance of quality and organization of audit of several key KPMG clients. He also advises KPMG's key clients in the field of International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS), Estonian accounting and taxation laws and tax administration. In the past has has been a member of the Estonian Accounting Standards Board and to the management of Estonian Auditors' Association for many years.

Andris Jegersi ametikäigu lühikirjeldus

Andris Jegers on vandeaudiitor alates 1992. aastast. Ta alustas tööd KPMG Eesti kontoris 1992. aastal, on KPMG Balticsi partner ja juhatuse liige alates 1998. aastast ning ettevõtte tegevjuht alates 2005. aastast. Andris vastutab mitme KPMG võtmekliendi auditi kvaliteedi ja korralduse eest. Ta nõustab KPMG võtmekliente rahvusvaheliste finantsaruandluse standardite (IFRS), raamatupidamist ja maksundust puudutavate Eesti seaduste ning maksukorralduse valdkonnas. Varasemalt on ta aastaid kuulunud ka Eesti Raamatupidamise Toimkonna ning audiitorkogu juhatusse.