

Anoto's Knowledge AI expands its userbase to Chile, South America

Stockholm, June 5, 2020 – Anoto Group AB (“Anoto” or the “Company”) today announces that its education subsidiary Knowledge AI Inc (“Knowledge AI”) has been awarded a contract worth 10,000 USD to conduct a paid pilot for its education solution KAIT in Chile, South America.

Knowledge AI is working with the Agrosuper Foundation, which is a philanthropic foundation of a multi-billion dollar South American conglomerate Agrosuper SA, to roll-out the KAIT platform in South America. The contract will pay for the setting up of Amazon Cloud as well as translating the KAIT software to Spanish. The pilot is expected to start in the second half of 2020 with a school in Chile. Once the pilot is successfully completed, the Foundation is expected to fund the distribution of KAIT to schools in the region for philanthropic reasons.

“This is our first commercial pilot in South America and we are fortunate to find a Foundation interesting in investing in improving the quality of education in South America,” says Joonhee Won, CEO of Knowledge AI Inc.
