Atos extends the deadline for the selection of a preferred financial restructuring proposal to the beginning of the week of June 10, 2024

Atos management in discussions with relevant parties to further improve certain terms of their submitted revised proposals in the best interest of the Company

Conciliator requesting for more time to ensure maximum support from the Company's financial creditors for their preferred proposal

Paris, France – June 6, 2024 Further to its press release dated June 3, 2024, Atos confirms that it is currently in discussions with the two parties that submitted revised restructuring proposals to further improve certain terms of those proposals. These discussions are part of the ongoing Conciliation process and are in the best interest of the Company.

The Conciliator has also requested more time to maximise support from the Company's financial creditors for their preferred proposal.

The Board of Directors has therefore extended the deadline for the selection of a preferred financial restructuring proposal to the beginning of the week of June 10, 2024. The Company's aim of reaching a final financial restructuring agreement by July 2024 is unchanged.
