NB: If you have not stated, by ticking off whether you want to give proxy or vote by post, but otherwise have ticked off items on the agenda in the table above, the form will be considered a vote by proxy to the Board of Directors to vote in accordance with such instructions. If you have not ticked off your postal vote or proxy instructions for all items on the agenda in the table above, such non-ticked off agenda items will be considered a proxy for the Board of Directors to vote in accordance with its recommendations as set out above (but otherwise not affect the proxy/postal vote). If the form is only dated and signed, it will be considered a proxy to the Board of Directors (with a right of substitution) to vote in accordance with the Board of Directors' recommendations as set out in the table above.

You can revoke a proxy at any time. A proxy applies to all matters processed at the Annual General Meeting. A proxy will on your behalf be used to the best of the proxy holder's beliefs in case of amendments to the items on the agenda and submission of new proposals put to vote.

A postal vote cannot be revoked. A postal vote will be taken into consideration if a new or amended proposal is substantially the same as the original proposal as reasonably determined by the Board of Directors.

Please note that you can either give proxy or vote by post, but not both.

The proxy/postal vote applies to shares registered in the shareholder's name in the Company's shareholders' register on the registration date, Tuesday 11 April 2023 at 11:59 pm CEST or shares comprised by notice of ownership received by the Company at this time for the purpose of registration in the shareholders register.
