FirstFarms A/S is preparing for future growth

Strengthens the management in production

As part of FirstFarms A/S' development and growth strategy, Jørgen Lindberg has joined a newly created position as Production Director in Hungary.

Jørgen is responsible for FirstFarms' increasing pig- and crop production in Hungary, leading the business side by side with Business Director Tamas Sarusi-Kis. Together with the rest of the local management team, they must ensure the continued growth in Hungary and contribution to the entire Group's development and result creation.

Jørgen comes from a position as CEO of Scandinavian Farms Pig Industries - Scandinavian Farms Breeding Technology in China. A position he held for 12 years.

"We are happy to have attracted an experienced and competent capacity like Jørgen, whose strong professionalism, extensive experience with food production and insight into - and respect for - cultural differences will create great value for FirstFarms going forward. We want to double the entire FirstFarms business in five years. A prerequisite for success is that we constantly focus on developing and practicing leadership and having the right team of competent managers," says CEO Anders H. Nørgaard.

Jørgen Lindberg says: "FirstFarms is a modern company with a healthy set of values and clear objectives. It is an ambitious and exciting growth journey that we are on, and one that I am really happy to take part in."

Overall, FirstFarms operates 20,000 hectares of agricultural land in Hungary, Romania, Slovakia and the Czech Republic and has 6,500 sows on productions in Hungary and Slovakia. FirstFarms also operates within the branches of milk and trading of land.
