

Energy Globe presents the best environmental solutions from all over the world for our future

On 5th June, the global World Environment Day, the winners and nominees of the Energy Globe World Award and all national winners will be announced by:

- Streaming of the Energy Globe World Award on www.energyglobe.info on 5th June at 5 pm
(Central European Summer Time - UTC/GMT +2)
- also on www.energyglobe.info:
 - details about the nominees and winners
 - all national Energy Globe winners, videos included
- Online & Social-Media Playouts, see attachment: „Overview Global Multi-Media Communications“

Facts:

- The Energy Globe, World Award for Sustainability, the most renowned environmental prize worldwide
- 187 COUNTRIES are participating.
- Energy Globe has been awarded annually since 2000.
- Each year, between 2000 and 3000 environmental projects are submitted from almost every country of our world.
- The awardings are taking place every year on a national basis in all participating countries as well as in the form of the Energy Globe World Award.
- Maneka Gandhi former Indian environmental minister is the chairwoman of the jury.
- Operator is the non-profit Energy Globe Ltd.

PARTNERS of this unique event are:

- UNIDO
- BMK, Austria
- CLUB of ROME
- ADVANTAGE AUSTRIA
- GLOBAL CHAMBER Platform
- and national institutions

GOAL OF THE ENERGY GLOBE is to show that there are already best practice solutions for almost every environmental problem.

These solutions are made public by Energy Globe, the economy is motivated to improve with the best technologies, consumers are encouraged to participate.

Short film about the Energy Globe Award: www.energyglobe.info/movie

