Immunicum to Host Investor Meeting with CEO

Immunicum AB (publ; IMMU.ST) today announced that on Monday, 15 November it will host an investor event providing the opportunity to meet with Immunicum's new CEO Erik Manting in person for the first time. He and other members of the management team will be available to answer questions about the company's vision, its programs and how it aims to address key challenges in the treatment of cancer.

The Meet-and-Greet event will be informal. As space is limited, attendance will be based on registration on a first-come-first-serve basis.

"Immunicum is committed to executing on its strategy and staying in touch with our shareholders on a proactive basis. After a long period of Covid-19 related restrictions, we look forward to meeting current shareholders, investors and other stakeholders in person, for the first time since I became Immunicum's CEO," said Erik Manting, Ph.D., Chief Executive Officer of Immunicum.

The event will be in English; however questions in Swedish are welcome. After the discussion there will be an opportunity to socialize. Light food and drinks will be provided.

Date: Monday, 15 November

Place: Västra Trädgårdsgatan 15, Stockholm (Tändstickspalatset)

Time: 18.00 - 19.00, registration from 17.30

Please register to participate in the Meet-and-Greet event by writing an email to ir@immunicum.com before 10 November.
