

Atos and RingCentral launch Unify Office in France

Paris, France and Belmont, Calif.– September 21, 2020 – Atos SE (CAC40: ATO), a global leader in digital transformation and RingCentral, Inc. (NYSE: RNG), a leading provider of global enterprise cloud communications, collaboration, and contact center solutions, today announced the first release of Unify Office \(UO\) by RingCentral in France. It will also be available in Austria, Belgium, Ireland, Italy, Spain and The Netherlands.

Pierrick Belledent, Head of the Business Information Department at the Ecole Normale Supérieure (ENS), which uses Unify Office by RingCentral, explains: "The pandemic has made it necessary to virtualize our exam grading process, which is a key strategic activity for the school. Our partnership with RingCentral and Atos enabled us to carry out remote sessions by allowing teachers to collaborate together, freeing them from technical challenges. Atos helped us to implement the RingCentral solution very quickly, which was appreciated by all our users."

With Unify Office by RingCentral businesses of all sizes can communicate and collaborate with ease using industry leading voice, video, team messaging and fax capabilities from anywhere using any device via a single enterprise solution.

Unify Office offers several benefits to customers, including:

- Seamless Migration: Customers can migrate at their own pace from traditional on-premise telephony solutions to Unify Office by RingCentral. They can also continue to use their existing Atos Unify OpenScape desk phones with Unify Office.
- Simplicity: One Vendor, One Offer, One Solution. Whether a customer's need is big or small we can support them with a simplified landscape to cover all their communication and collaboration needs, wherever their teams are working in the new normal.
- Open Platform and Integrations: Easily integrate Unify Office with existing business applications, when using applications such as Salesforce, Microsoft and Google productivity suites through 200+ pre-built integrations or with help of Atos to develop integrations for specific custom workflows.

"Unify Office leverages an industry-leading cloud communication platform to enable flexible technology consumption and address the constantly evolving needs of the increasingly mobile and highly distributed workforce," said Elka Popova, Vice President of Research, Frost & Sullivan "Atos, with its Unify communications and collaboration business, stands out among other solution providers as it combines the skills of an independent systems integrator (SI) with the technology expertise of a communications solutions developer. Drawing on its deep vertical knowledge and vertical industry transformation program, Atos tailors its solutions and services to effectively address the unique challenges and objectives businesses face in their different industries."
