ASM INTERNATIONAL N.V. NOMINATES TWO NEW SUPERVISORY BOARD MEMBERS

ASM International N.V. (Euronext Amsterdam: ASM) today announces the retirement of Ulrich Schumacher as member of its Supervisory Board, and nominates Monica de Virgiliis and Didier Lamouche for appointment to its Supervisory Board.

The Supervisory Board announces that after three terms of four years Mr. Schumacher will retire as member of the Supervisory Board as per the Annual General Meeting which is to be held on May 18, 2020. The Supervisory Board thanks Mr. Schumacher for his valuable contributions which benefitted the Boards and the company.

The Supervisory Board proposes to appoint Mrs. Monica de Virgiliis and Mr. Didier Lamouche as member of the Supervisory Board for a term of four years during the Annual General Meeting of May 18, 2020.

Mrs. De Virgiliis is an accomplished senior executive with 25 years' experience across various industries directly involved in or impacted by digitalization. She was an executive and general manager of the wireless multimedia division at STMicroelectronics (STM), general manager of the industrial microprocessor division at Infineon, Vice President Corporate Strategy at STM, and until mid-2019 Chief Strategy Officer at CEA, a French research agency. She led business model turnarounds through transformation, organic growth and M&A in the consumer, industrial and automotive industries. She is comfortable to act within multiple industry spaces and is accustomed to operate in a diversity of business ecosystems and to cross-boundary collaborations.

Mrs. De Virgiliis currently serves as non-executive director of Prysmian - listed in Milan - a global leader in energy/telecom cables & systems, and Geodis, a European logistics operator belonging to SNCF Group.

Mr. Lamouche has more than 35 years' experience in the tech industry, and held multiple roles as CEO/COO of private and public companies. In his latest role as CEO from 2013 to 2018, he led the creation of IDEMIA. He also has an extensive understanding of the semiconductor market from experiences as CEO of ST-Ericsson, COO of STM, Executive Vice President of the semiconductor operations at IBM, and CEO of Altis Semiconductor, a JV between IBM and Infineon. He also led Bull, a leading French-based IT company, as Chairman and CEO from 2005 to 2010. He has a deep understanding of enterprise governance from his current engagements as Chairman of the Supervisory Board at Utimaco and non-executive Chairman of the Board at Quadient, from his non-executive director position at Adecco, and prior engagements at various listed and privately-owned companies both in and outside the semiconductor industry.

Jan Lobbezoo, Chairman of the Supervisory Board commented:

"It is with great pleasure that we announce the proposed appointment of Monica de Virgiliis and Didier Lamouche to the Supervisory Board. I am very confident that with their experience, knowledge and network, Monica and Didier will significantly contribute to the Supervisory Board and ASM."
