CEO Message

Firstly I would like to take this opportunity to thank all investors for their trust in our company, in our technology and for the support in the rights issue conducted earlier this quarter. The outcome was very satisfying, and we feel encouraged and stimulated by the trust from our shareholders.

During the third quarter, we saw an increased interest and need for our user-friendly diagnostic test. During the last few months, we placed 14 CADScor® Systems on the market, which makes the quarter an all-time-high. It is primarily based on a strong performance in Germany, Austria and Switzerland, but, in addition, we received our first orders in the Middle East. In combination with our single use-patch sales, sales in this quarter represents a significant revenue growth year on year. As we have several product evaluations on-going in a number of markets, I am confident about the coming quarters and our opportunities moving forward.

During the quarter, the German Federal Joint Committee (G-BA) issued a request for additional data supporting the acoustic technology. The request in itself is a strong recognition of the technology and the CADScor® System. We have been able to build a significant interest around the innovation and the benefits it will bring to the German patients suffering from stable Coronary Artery Disease (CAD). We have addressed their questions, combined with our proposal on how to achieve additional evidence as per their request. With the pandemic situation in mind, we expect the G-BA to make a decision on next step or invite for a follow up meeting by mid Q1 2021.

We recently received additional questions from the US Food and Drug Administration (FDA). We deem their ongoing and swift request for complimentary information as positive and an indication that they have clearly understood the unique benefits which CADScor® provides, especially in times when clinical resources are being stretched. We submitted our responses and are waiting for any potential additional request for complimentary information. The pandemic situation makes the prediction difficult, but we expect to hear more within the coming months.

In parallel we are working on the assessment of consolidated reimbursement alternatives to obtain individual cost-coverage. The work on the reimbursement alternatives will continue in parallel with other activities related to market entry preparation.

In the UK, we have gathered relevant patient data about pathways into the healthcare system into a data base, an important part in a health economic analysis. We expect it to be finished by the end of this year, at which time we can reconnect with the National Institute for Health and Care Excellence (NICE) and restart our process of reimbursement approval. A recommendation from NICE would enable and further support market investment in the highly interesting UK market.

Like many other companies we were forced to adjust our priorities and plans over the past 6 months, but we are now, well into the fourth quarter, in better shape than ever before. The new share issue has put us in a much stronger position, and we are preparing for a very exciting 2021. We are looking forward to important input from the regulatory authorities, including G-BA, FDA and NICE, combined with a continued successful closing in ongoing evaluations; a reflection of the added value that CADScor® truly represents.

Once again thanks for your trust and we are looking forward to an exciting journey

Per Persson
Chief Executive Officer

NOTE 8 INTANGIBLE ASSETS

Development projects are related to the development of the CADScor®System (acoustic cardiovascular diagnostics), which records heart sounds and murmurs for calculating a patient's specific score in order to determine the patient's risk of coronary artery disease. During the second quarter 2017, the CADScor®System was introduced on the market and the first sales orders were recognized. Capitalization of development costs ceased when the product was ready to launch on the market and amortization of capitalized development costs commenced. Management estimates the useful life of development projects to be 10 years. These assets are assessed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount exceeds the recoverable amount. Development projects have been tested for impairment in December 2019.
