Chairman of the Board at Sdiptech AB (publ) acquires shares via exercise of buy options

Sdiptech's Chairman of the Board Jan Samuelson has acquired 90,000 shares in Sdiptech AB in connection with the exercise of buy options from Serendipity Group AB.

Sdiptech has been informed that Jan Samuelson has called for the exercise of buy options issued by Serendipity Group. The buy options acquired in 2018 give Jan Samuelson the right to buy 90,000 B-shares in Sdiptech from Serendipity Group.

As Serendipity Group does not currently own any shares in Sdiptech, the company acquires the corresponding number of shares from its owners, Ashkan Pouya and Saeid Esmaeilzadeh via companies, who thereby reduce their holdings in Sdiptech by 45,000 shares each.

Jan Samuelson is also relocating 45,000 shares from his current holding from a depot in his own name, to his company Independia AB.

The transactions above do not entail any dilution for Sdiptech's shareholders and do not require any additional costs for Sdiptech.

Summary:

- Jan Samuelson exercises 90,000 call options from Serendipity Group AB, and thereby increasing his holding in Sdiptech AB by 90,000 B-shares.
- Ashkan Pouya and Saied Esmaeilzadeh sell 45,000 shares each via companies, a total of 90,000, to Serendipity Group AB, which in turn is sold to Jan Samuelson upon exercise of options.
- Jan Samuelson relocates 45,000 shares of his current holding from a depot in his own name, to his company Independia AB.
