- III.3. Variable part of the remuneration shall mean the part of the remuneration is determined and paid depending on the achievement of the results defined in time (monthly, or yearly).
- III.4. Strategic goals shall mean the goals set in the Company strategy approved by the Supervisory Council.
- III.5. The Company body shall mean the Supervisory Council, the Board, the Committee and the Chief Executive Officer of the Company.

- III.6. The collegial body of the Company shall mean the Supervisory Council, the Board or the Committee.
- III.7. The Committee shall mean an advisory body formed by the Supervisory Council or the Board.
- III.8. The sole managing body shall mean the Chief Executive Officer of the Company.
- III.9. GMS shall mean General Meeting of Shareholders.

IV. THE GENERAL PRINCIPLES FOR DETERMINING THE REMUNERATION

- IV.1. When determining the Remuneration of the members of the Supervisory Council, the Board, the Committee and the Chief Executive Officer of the Company, it shall be taken into account that the Company is an entity of strategic importance for the national security. It should also be appreciated that the Company's bodies deal with complex issues related to the Strategic Objectives, carry out activities of public interest and manage infrastructure and assets of high value. This determines that the Company needs top-level specialists who would ensure proper functioning of the Company and effectively pursue the Strategic Objectives set out for the Company. Therefore, in order to attract professionals in their field to the positions of the Company bodies, a competitive remuneration for the members of the Company bodies should be established in accordance with conditions of the market and industry practice.
- IV.2. The Remuneration to be paid must:
 - IV.2.1. promote the creation of long-term and sustainable value of the Company, to be fair and understandable;
 - IV.2.2. comply with the workload of the individual organs of the Company and their members;
 - IV.2.3. be competitive with the salary levels in the labour market of the respective field;
 - IV.2.4. ensure the indemnification of the liability assumed by the individual members of the Company bodies;
 - IV.2.5. promote the attraction of high-level professionals in their field to the management of the Company.
- IV.3. Civil legal relations are established between the members of the collegial bodies of the Company and the Company and are formalised by means of a civil contract. Members of the collegial bodies of the Company shall not be considered as employees of the Company and shall not be subordinate to or accountable to the employees of the Company.
- IV.4. Remuneration of a member of the collegial body of the Company may be reduced proportionally or not paid at all on the basis of a decision of the body of the Company that elected him or her if the member of the collegial body of the Company fails to perform his or her duties, i.e. does not participate in the meetings of the collegial body of the Company, does not express an opinion on the agenda items, does not vote on them, etc. The chairman of the collegial body of the Company shall oversee that the members of the collegial body of the Company properly perform their duties and shall inform the collegial body of the Company that elected him or her on improper performance of duties and in case of the collegial bodies of the Company elected by the GMS, he or she as well shall inform the Chief Executive Officer. The member of the collegial body of the Company, who determines improper performance of the duties of the chairman, shall inform the bodies of the Company referred to in this Item. The Remuneration reduced and / or unpaid for improper performance of duties shall not be compensated.

- IV.5. In the event when the member of the Supervisory Council and (or) the member of the Board, with exception to the member of the collegial body that are public servants, holds a position in the Committee, such a person shall receive the cumulated payment, i.e. the member of the Supervisory Council and (or) the member of the Board receives the remuneration for the activity in the Supervisory Council or Board, and the for the activity in the Committee.
- IV.6. In the event when the independent member of the Supervisory Council is appointed to serve as a Committee member in more than one Committee, he is paid full remuneration determined for the Committee member in one (first) Committee, and half of the remuneration for the activity in other Committees, and if the member is elected the Chairman of the Committee – half of the remuneration determined for the Committee Chairman.
- IV.7. In case of resignation or removal from office of a member of the collegial body of the Company, no severance pay shall be paid. In such cases, the member of the Supervisory Council, the Board or the Committee shall be remunerated for the time actually dedicated on the activities of the member of the Supervisory Council, the Board or the Committee.
- IV.8. The legal relationship between the Sole Managing Body and the Company is formalised by an employment contract for a term of 5 (five) years. The employment contract between the Sole Managing Body and the Company shall terminate on the grounds provided for in the employment contract and / or the Labour Code of the Republic of Lithuania.
- IV.9. In order to ensure a competitive rate of the Remuneration for the Sole Managing Body, the collegial body of the Company, which determines its remuneration, conducts regular remuneration analysis.
- IV.10. In the event of the resignation or dismissal of the Sole Managing Body, the principles set out in the employment contract and the Labour Code of the Republic of Lithuania shall apply to the payment to the employee.
