

Communication by the Casino group

Paris, 30 November 2023

Further to rumors reported in the press, the Casino group confirms that it has received preliminary indicative offers from several purchasers for different hypermarket and supermarket perimeters. In the context of the ongoing competitive process, and in order to protect its legitimate interests, the group will not give any details on the content of the offers currently being examined.

It is specified that any disposal transaction should require the prior approval of the consortium (EP Equity Investment III s.à.r.l, Fimalac and Trinity Investments Designated Activity Company) in accordance with the lock-up agreement dated 5 October 2023.
