Section IV. Authorized Capital, Reserves and Shares

- 4.1. The Company may have equity capital and borrowed capital. The equity capital shall be formed of a share issue price and the profit of the Company. The borrowed capital shall be formed by issuing debentures, raising credits and borrowing funds in other ways.
- 4.2. The equity capital of the Company shall consist of the following:
 - 4.2.1. the amount of the paid-up authorized capital;
 - 4.2.2. the share premium (the amount above the nominal value of shares);
 - 4.2.3. the revaluation reserve;
 - 4.2.4. the legal reserve;
 - 4.2.5. the reserve for purchase of own shares;
 - 4.2.6. any other reserves;
 - 4.2.7. the unappropriated result - profit (loss).
- 4.3. The authorized capital of the Company is 4,741,500 (four million seven hundred forty one thousand five hundred) Euros.
- 4.4. The authorized capital of the Company is divided into 16,350,000 (sixteen million three hundred fifty thousand) ordinary nominal shares. The nominal value of each share is 0.29 (twenty nine euro cents) Euro.
- 4.5. The equity capital of the Company may not be less than 1/2 of the authorized capital referred to in the Articles of Association. If the equity capital of the Company fell to less than 1/2 of the authorized capital, within 3 months after the day on which it learned or should have learned about the existing situation, the Board must convene the General Meeting of Shareholders. The decision to reduce the authorized capital of the Company, however the reduced authorized capital may not be lower than the minimal amount of the authorized capital, to transform the Company or to liquidate the Company may be taken in this Meeting. The shareholders may decide to cover the losses by additional contributions.
- 4.6. If the General Meeting of Shareholders failed to take the decision provided for in Clause 4.5, Section 4 hereinabove to remedy the situation existing in the Company or such situation has not been remedied within 6 months after the day on which the Board learned or should have learned about the existing situation, within 2 months after the date of the General Meeting of Shareholders the Board must apply to court for the reduction of the authorized capital by the amount whereby the equity capital has fallen below the authorized capital.
- 4.7. After the decision of the court to reduce the authorized capital of the Company becomes effective, the Board of the Company must make relevant amendments in the Articles of Association of the Company changing the amount of the authorized capital and the number of shares and(or) their nominal value, and cancel shares. First of all, any own shares purchased by the Company shall be cancelled and should this prove insufficient, the nominal values of the remaining shares shall be reduced or (and) a portion of shares shall be cancelled. The number of shares shall be reduced for all the shareholders in proportion to the number of shares in the Company owned by them at the end of the day of registration of the amended Articles of Association at the Register of Legal Entities. The amended Articles of Association signed by the Chairman of the Board must be submitted to the administrator of the Register of Legal Entities within 30 days after coming into effect. If shares are cancelled, the documentary proof of the cancellation thereof must be submitted to the administrator of the Register of Legal Entities together with the documents prescribed by law.

- 4.8. The authorized capital of the Company may be increased provided the General Meeting of Shareholders decided by at least 2/3 of votes to issue new shares or to increase the nominal value of issued shares or it may be increased using the means of the Company and making relevant amendments in the Articles of Association.
- 4.9. The authorized capital may be reduced by the decision of the General Meeting Shareholders adopted by at least 2/3 of votes or by the decision of court in the cases prescribed by the Law on Companies of the Republic of Lithuania.
- 4.10. The authorized capital shall be considered increased or reduced only after the amendments the Articles of Association are registered at the Register of Legal Entities of the Republic of Lithuania.
- 4.11. The shares of the Company shall be ordinary registered shares. They shall be book-entry, the emission of shares has to be registered at the Securities Commission (in required by the legislation) and a joint account has to be opened at the Central Securities Depository of Lithuania.
- 4.12. The shares shall be recorded by entries in the securities accounts that are managed in the name of shareholders by subjects prescribed by the Law of Securities Market.
- 4.13. The entries in the securities accounts shall be the proof of ownership of book-entry shares. Transfer of book-entry shares shall be recorded by a debit entry in the securities account of their transferor, and a credit entry in the account of their transferee. When concluding the transaction on the transfer of shares, the parties of transaction have to provide their account managers with a written agreement indicating, inter alia, following:
 - 4.13.1. the name, legal form, code and registered office of the Company the shares whereof are being transferred;
 - 4.13.2. the number of transferred shares according to their classes and their nominal value;
 - 4.13.3. the share issue code assigned by the Central Securities Depository of Lithuania;
 - 4.13.4. the amount of dividend on preference shares, voting and any other rights.
- 4.14. The procedure of payment for shares, the procedure of the change in share class shall be according the Law on Companies.
- 4.15. The Company shall have the following reserves:
 - 4.15.1. The revaluation reserve is the amount of the increase in the value of tangible long-term assets and financial assets resulting after the revaluation of assets. The revaluation reserve shall be reduced when the revalued assets are written off, subject of wear, depreciated or transferred into the ownership of any other persons. The revaluation reserve may not be used to reduce losses. When the financial assets are revalued, the revaluation amount transferred to the revaluation reserve may not be used for the increase of the authorized capital.
 - 4.15.2. The legal reserve shall be formed from the profit available for appropriation. It must be at least equal to 1/10 of the amount of the authorized capital and may only be used to cover the losses of the Company. The portion of the legal reserve above 1/10 of the authorized capital may be redistributed when the profit of the next financial year is appropriated. In case the legal reserve is below 1/10 of the authorized capital, then deductions to the legal reserve shall obligatory and cannot be less than 1/20 of the net profit until the minimal level of the legal reserve is reached.
 - 4.15.3. The reserve for acquisition of own shares. It shall be formed from the profit available for appropriation. The reserve for acquisition of own shares may only be formed after deduction to the legal reserve is made, and it may be used to cover losses of the Company and to increase the authorized capital.
 - 4.15.4. Other reserves shall be formed from the profit available for appropriation and used for the implementation of the specific objectives of the Company. Other reserves may only be formed after deduction to the legal reserve is made, and they may be used to cover losses of the Company and increase the authorized capital.

- 4.15.5. Share premium shall be a portion of the equity capital of the Company equal to the difference between the issue price and the nominal value of shares. Share premium may be used to increase the authorized capital and cover the losses of the Company.

Section V. Rights and Duties of Shareholders. Procedure of Share Transferring to the Possession of Other Persons

- 5.1. Shareholders shall have the following property rights:
 - 5.1.1. to receive a part of the Company's profit (dividend);
