It was at the Théâtre Mogador, in front of 700 logistics and supply chain professionals, that a few members of the ARGAN team present on stage was awarded the prize for « Real Estate Player of the Year » by the jury composed by Supply Chain Village - Agora Médias.

ARGAN won the award for its new AUTONOM[®] warehouse.

Launched in 2022, AUTONOM[®] is a warehouse that produces and consumes its own green energy. A photovoltaic plant dedicated to the self-consumption of the client is combined with energy storage batteries to cover all the building's energy needs for heating, cooling and lighting. Moreover, gas has been banned and replaced by electric heat pumps that cut CO₂ emissions due to heating by a factor of 20.

Since the beginning of 2022, more than ten AUTONOM[®] projects have already been delivered, are under construction or signed.

This prize rewards the mutual commitment of the clients and ARGAN to decarbonising logistics real estate.

ARGAN would like to thank the Supply Chain Village editorial team and the jury for this award.
