Attendance at the General Meeting, either in person or by proxy, must be registered within the end of 23 April 2020. Shareholders can register attendance online through the Norwegian Securities Depository's (VPS) investor services. Attendance can also be registered by completing and submitting the registration or proxy form attached as Appendix 1 in accordance with the instructions set out in the form.

In order to mitigate effects of the corona virus disease, the Board of Directors encourages shareholders to be represented at the Annual General Meeting through proxy or by submitting votes in advance. The Annual General Meeting will be efficiently carried through by strictly keeping to the agenda items. Further, the Annual General Meeting can be followed through a live webcast from our website www.scatecsolar.com.

Shareholders who do not wish to attend the General Meeting in person may authorise the Chairman (or whomever he designates) or another person to vote for its shares. Proxies may be submitted electronically through VPS investor service or by completing and submitting the registration or proxy form attached as Appendix 1 in accordance with the instructions set out in the form. The proxy must be in writing, dated, signed and submitted no later than at the General Meeting. Proxy forms must be received by the Company no later than the end of 23 April 2020, unless the shareholder has registered attendance within this deadline. See the enclosed proxy form for further information on proxies. The Company is of the opinion that neither the beneficiary shareholder nor the nominee is entitled to vote for shares registered on a nominee account in the VPS, cf. the Norwegian Public Limited Act section 4-10. Shareholders must ensure that the shares are registered in the VPS account held in their own name prior to 23 April 2020 in order to be assured that it may vote for such shares at the General Meeting, cf. below regarding recording in the shareholder registry. Pursuant to the Company's articles of association, upon acquisition of shares, the right to participate and vote at the General Meeting may only be exercised if the acquisition is recorded in the shareholder registry the fifth business day prior to the General Meeting being 23 April 2020.

Decisions on voting rights for shareholders and representatives are made by the person opening the meeting, whose decision may be reversed by the General Meeting by majority vote. Shareholders have the right to propose resolutions for the matters to be addressed by the General Meeting.

A shareholder may demand that Board members and the Chief Executive Officer provide available information at the General Meeting about matters which may affect the assessment of items which have been presented to the shareholders for decision. The same applies to information regarding the Company's financial position and other business to be transacted at the General Meeting, unless the information demanded cannot be disclosed without causing disproportionate harm to the Company. Shareholders are entitled to bring advisors and may grant the right of speech to one advisor.

Information about the General Meeting and documents to be considered by the General Meeting or incorporated in the notice is posted on the Company's website. Documents relating to matters to be considered by the General Meeting may be sent free of charge to shareholders upon request.

The following documents will be available on www.scatecsolar.com:

- this notice and the enclosed form for notice of attendance/Proxy
- the Board of Directors' proposed resolutions for the General Meeting for the items listed on the agenda
