

Sustainability and People Report and Seminar

13 January 2022

ICG publishes Sustainability and People Report, shareholder seminar on 27 January 2022

Intermediate Capital Group plc (“ICG” or the “Group”) has today published its Sustainability and People Report for 2021. The report is available on our website here.

As previously announced, ICG is hosting a shareholder seminar on 27 January 2022 at 2pm GMT focusing on how our work on sustainability and people positively impacts the growth opportunities and long-term prospects of our business.

The following will be presenting at the seminar:

- Benoît Durteste: Chief Executive Officer and Chief Investment Officer
- Antje Hensel-Roth: Chief People and External Affairs Officer
- Eimear Palmer: Head of Responsible Investing
- Krysto Nikolic: Global Head of Real Estate
- Chris Nichols: Head of Sale and Leaseback

We are hosting this seminar virtually with an opportunity for a live Q&A during the event. Interested parties can sign up for the seminar here and details are also on our website: <https://www.icgam.com/shareholders/results-centre/fy22>. A replay will be made available on our website after the event.

The Group will release an update on Q3 trading for the period to 31 December 2021 at 7am on 27 January 2022. No further update on trading and no new material information will be provided during this seminar.
