Wolters Kluwer acquires Czech software provider for the waste management sector

Alphen aan den Rijn — May 2, 2025 — Wolters Kluwer Legal & Regulatory today announced it has acquired Inisoft Group, s.r.o. (Inisoft), a Czech provider of regulatory compliance software for the waste management sector. The company's solutions are used by over 3,600 customers, including government agencies, municipalities, waste management providers and other businesses. Inisoft's solutions, including Envita, facilitate compliance with national and local laws and regulations for the disposal of waste, including tracking and reporting of waste data.

Lubomir Weiss, General Manager of Wolters Kluwer Legal & Regulatory Czechia: "By integrating the expertise and know-how of Inisoft into Wolters Kluwer Legal & Regulatory, we are further enhancing the value we deliver to our customers, supporting them in complying with increasing environmental regulations. We intend to support the team in further developing the solutions."

David Mareček, CEO of Inisoft, adds: "We are joining Wolters Kluwer because, among other things, they see the potential and benefits of Inisoft for their customers and because we will naturally complement the Wolters Kluwer portfolio with our segment focus. Inisoft was built to make compliance with waste management regulations simpler and faster through tailored software solutions, and we are excited to leverage our expertise to benefit Wolters Kluwer Legal & Regulatory customers in Czechia and Slovakia."

Founded in 1992, Inisoft s.r.o today has 68 employees who will become part of Wolters Kluwer Legal & Regulatory's Czech and Slovakian unit. The acquisition will have an immaterial impact on Wolters Kluwer's earnings and is expected to achieve a return on invested capital (ROIC) above Wolters Kluwer's after-tax cost of capital (8%) within 3 to 5 years.
