

Guerbet contributes to the NH TherAguix IPO on Euronext Growth, a specialist in innovative biotechnologies for precision radiotherapy

Villepinte, September 29, 2021 (6:00 p.m. CET) – Guerbet (FR0000032526 GBT), a global specialist in contrast agents and solutions for medical imaging, has committed to contribute to the NH TherAguix IPO on Euronext Growth market in Paris by placing an order of €3 million as an institutional placement. This order represents approximately 9.99% of the gross proceeds of the offering, in the case of a fully subscribed offering, excluding the exercise of the extension clause and the over-allotment option.

NH TherAguix is a young French biotech company founded in 2015 that specializes in the development of innovative nanomedicines for the treatment of cancer by radiotherapy.

Guerbet's investment comes as the two companies have begun discussing a possible partnership for use of artificial intelligence developed by Guerbet in NH TherAguix clinical trials on the pancreas and glioblastoma. Last July, the two companies bid together to obtain government funding in this field as part of an Important Project of Common European Interest (IPCEI). Following on from Guerbet's subscription commitment, the two companies will discuss possible areas for collaboration on the AGuIX platform, with the objective to negotiate a partnership agreement.

François Nicolas, Vice President R&D, R&I and Chief Digital Officer for Guerbet, said: “This investment in NH TherAguix is in line with our desire to pursue innovation in diagnostic imaging and to strengthen our R&D pipeline by seeking partnerships with young innovative companies whose research work may have strong complementarities with our core business. We are therefore very excited to support this IPO and thus confirm our interest in a theranostic approach.”
