HIGHLIGHTS

BG Fund was up significantly in September, delivering +1.95% (USD A estimate), mostly driven by risk arbitrage and special situations, with mandatory convertible bonds also making a strong contribution. Overall, Volatility strategies contributed +59 bps to this month's performance.

This was in an environment which saw several sharp selloffs, alongside periods of otherwise relatively muted volatility. The Euro Stoxx 50© Total Return index finished the month down -2.33%, with credit widening and iTraxx Crossover (S33) © finishing the month at 351bps (+27bps for September), while volatility marginally decreased overall with VStoxx© ending the month at 26.1%, down from 26.7%.

As expected following a summer lull, corporate activity has significantly picked up. In addition to near-term catalysts, we expect further material opportunities in special situations, risk arbitrage, corporate issuance and capital markets activity.
