SEPTEMBER HIGHLIGHTS

Equity markets continued their sell off in September both in Europe and in the US with the Euro Stoxx 50® Total Return and the S&P500® Total Return down -5.57% and -9.21% respectively.

The market implied volatility measure VStoxx® increased slightly from 27.9% to 30.7% while credit markets also widened with the iTraxx Crossover® (S37) moving from 588bps to 604bps.

In this context BG Fund (USD A) was marginally down in September losing -63bps overall with positive returns from mandatory convertibles, volatility trading and systematic trend following offset by quantitative equity trading and special situations which saw mark to markets impacted by specific selling pressure.

For the third quarter of the year, the Euro Stoxx 50® Total Return is down -3.71% and S&P500® Total Return -4.88% while BG Fund (USD A) is up +72bps.

SEPTEMBER COMMENTARY

Volatility strategies

Mandatory convertible bond arbitrage

Mandatory convertible bonds contributed +9bps this month. September saw the long anticipated re-opening of the primary market with a new issue from Siemens Energy to finance its minority buyout of Gamesa the wind energy business. The bond came at appealing levels and we were a large buyer of the paper. As rates continue to rise we anticipate there may be more companies coming to market to issue mandatories in order to optimise their financing costs.

Convertible bond arbitrage

Convertible bonds contributed -7bps in September.

After a strong performance in August the European CB universe dropped on average by -1.5% in a context of rapidly rising interest rates and widening of credit spreads. Most long only market participants tried to stick close to their benchmark, being concerned about further central bank action to suppress inflation as well as the risk of a looming recession. This notwithstanding, the primary markets re-opened with 3 new issues totalling approximately €800m. While September's total issuance size was small, we estimate CB redemptions and retirements (including natural redemptions from maturity, exercise of puts, soft calls and take-overs) to reach almost €9bn before year-end. We expect there could be additional new issues to replenish and replace these bonds.

The US convertible market had another difficult month during which the 5-year treasury yield jumped from 3.35% to 4.09% and HY CDX credit spreads moved from 533bps to 610bps. Rates and credit moves were compounded by SPX dropping by more than 9%, resulting in selling pressure from long-only investors. Despite this our US portfolio had a positive month. Positions remain well-hedged against rate moves and our high-delta CBs contributed due to increased equity volatility and lower sensitivity to rates and credit.

US (VIX®)	26.97	31.52	4.55
Europe (Vstoxx®)	28.50	31.15	2.65

Volatility trading posted +6bps to the performance of the fund in September. The month was characterized by an overall risk off sentiment primarily driven by concerns over strong central bank hawkishness.

After the quiet summer, most participants were cautious ahead of September and already well-hedged and positioned for a market correction. We did not see any panic in the equity volatility market as the drop in equities was widely anticipated. Realised volatility in September was below that priced at the start of the month. However, equity fixed strike implied volatility moved marginally higher in sympathy with FX and rate volatility, which were impacted by violent moves, particularly in the UK market.

In this context, and with our cautious bias, our volatility trading strategies performed well primarily due to active trading and a repricing higher in implied volatility.

Warrant arbitrage

Warrant arbitrage and SPACs contributed -3bps in September.

Equity strategies

In September, equity strategies had a negative performance of -44bps, mainly driven by general de-risking from investors. The market is focused more than ever on the pricing of risk and the differentiation of pricing between safe and risky deals is becoming more pronounced.

In general, even for safe transactions, risk arb spreads still offer good value versus historic levels. However on specific situations, some risk arb stocks are trading at a premium as investors are willing to pay for the optionality of an improved offer. We have exposure to a number of positions displaying these profiles and these positions continued to perform well.

Conversely, there is a nervousness of anything considered by the market as a speculative or more risky and situations with these characteristics suffered during the month. While this negatively impacted the mark to market of several positions it offers attractive entry points for investors who have carefully assessed the risks, identified clear catalysts and who are able to earn a risk premium on market perceived timing uncertainty.

Overall, our portfolio contains a very interesting and diverse mix of idiosyncratic risks a number of which should crystallise in the next couple of months and several more where we expect the catalyst to materialise in the near future.

Credit strategies

Capital Structure Arbitrage

Capital structure arbitrage was flat this month.

Credit long / short

Credit long / short contributed +2bps. Credit spreads experienced another roller-coaster month particularly in the high yield sector with a 160bps swing on the itraxx Crossover S37.

The elevated levels of US CPI data surprised the market and caused a sell-off in fixed income markets worldwide. The European credit market also underwent a significant widening along with the increase in rates. The Crossover ended "only" 16bps wider for September thanks to a significant short squeeze in the last days of the month.

Credit special situations

Credit special situations contributed -16bps primarily due to KCA Deutag which re-marked on oil & gas prices as well as Ecobat which saw some light selling pressure in relatively illiquid market conditions.

Trading

Trading contributed -10bps overall in September. Systematic trend following and macro trading performed well but their returns were offset by the equity quantitative strategy.

Systematic trend primarily capitalised on the moves in interest rates, with short-term contracts and Government bonds resuming their decline, regardless of duration. The sharpest move occurred in the UK in the wake of the government mini-budget which also saw the GBP fall precipitously against the US dollar further benefiting our long USD position.

The equity quantitative strategy suffered in September due to forced deleveraging by systematic traders. This was as a result of both macro volatility and significant selling from crowded index rebalancing strategies which saw the liquidation of a number of portfolios. As market stabilisation returns we expect the strategy to recover.

Macro trading was positive in September. We believed investors were still too complacent on the inflation landscape and the likely escalation of central bank tightening. While rate rise themes may weaken in October, equity markets continue to look vulnerable longer term: we believe we are at peak corporate profitability and markets seem to be pricing in a too constructive outlook for EPS growth and implied valuations.

B. DIRECT INVESTMENTS OTHER THAN BG FUND

On top of its investment in BG Fund, BGHL has other investments. As of 30 September 2022, the net asset value of these investments represents less than 1.00% of the net asset value of BGHL.

Rasaland Investors ("RLI")

Rasaland Investors ("RLI") RLI is a Malta-based holding company structured as a private equity fund in terms of fees and organisation and managed by BK Partners. RLI is dedicated to land, hotels and high-end resort developments in Mexico. RLI's main asset is a majority interest in ACTUR, a private company owning the land developing assets. ACTUR's other shareholders are Mexican public institutions.

In July 2020, RLI made a cash tender offer to buy back its own shares, for a price per share of US$0.12270. The valuation of BGHL's investment in RLI shares was marked down on 31 August 2020, using the US$0.12270 per share price as the estimated fair value of the RLI shares. This price represents a circa 80% discount to the latest published NAV per share.

Hedge Funds Liquidation Stress Tests

Stress tests' scenarios have been improved in order to take into account liquidity issues. This scenario aims at reflecting, to some extent, how the fund would react in distressed market environment (as was the case in late 2008). These stress tests combine the three following adjustments:

• Small, Mid and Large caps adjustment

In certain market conditions, beta may become much higher than its level in normal market conditions and thus the hedging of such positions may not be effective. To address this kind of circumstance we apply a corrective factor to the beta of small, mid and large caps respectively. Since April 2019, the corrective factors have been calibrated on the amplitude of the stresses by looking at worst historical scenario since 1987.

	-5%	-10%	-20%	-30%
Small (<1bn)	2.00	1.75	1.50	1.30
Mid (1bn-5bn)	1.50	1.50	1.25	1.20
Large (5bn-20bn)	1.20	1.15	1.10	1.05
Mega (>20bn)	1.00	1.00	1.00	1.00

Risk arbitrage adjustment

The risk of risk arbitrage positions is taken into account differently in case the market drops by more than 10%. We consider that one third of risk arbitrage positions will collapse.

• Liquidity adjustment

An average discount (realized in 2008) is applied to bond, convertible bond (including mandatory convertible bond) and loan prices in case credit spreads widen by more than 25%.

Mandatories: Adj. price = Max(Shifted Price - 5% * Max(Credit spread shift - 25%, 0), Parity)
Others: Adj. price = Max(Shifted Price - 5% * Max(Credit spread shift - 25%, 0), 0)
