SdipTech AB (publ) acquires Vera Klippan AB

As of today, SdipTech AB acquired all shares in Vera Klippan.

Vera Klippan is a leading producer of heavy-duty fiberglass pipes and cisterns in large dimensions. The company's products are used for chemicals, water and sewage, as well as chimneys and scrubbers.

Jakob Holm, CEO SdipTech AB, comment:

"Vera Klippan's solutions play an important role in several types of infrastructures linked to water, land and air purification. This market is expected to increase in line with stricter environmental regulations and a continued strong focus on environmental and sustainability issues. We work structured to have a clear place in this market development towards more sustainable communities, and the acquisition of Vera Klippan is another step in that direction."

Lars Gustafsson, CEO Vera Klippan AB, comment:

"With the help of a long-term owner like SdipTech, we can continue to strengthen our customer offering and secure the company's continued development and expansion. We also see exciting cooperation opportunities with other companies within the SdipTech Group."
