

Elis continues to expand its network in Latin America with a new acquisition in Mexico

Puteaux, August 10, 2026 – Elis, a global leader in circular services, today announces the acquisition of a Mexican player providing flat linen rental and maintenance services.

This operator, whose revenues reached approximately 5.5 million euros¹ in 2025, runs two laundries in Aguascalientes, a city located in the center of the country. The company employs 180 people, and its management team will remain in place to continue developing the business locally.

This new acquisition, which will further strengthen Elis' existing network in the country, will be consolidated in the financial statements as of August 1, 2026.

About Elis

As a major player in circular services, thanks to a rental-maintenance model optimized by traceability technologies, Elis innovates every day.
