Completion of APMH Invest's all-cash recommended purchase offer for the shares in Svitzer

16 May 2025

The offer period for APMH Invest A/S' ("APMHI"), a wholly owned subsidiary of A.P. Møller Holding A/S ("A.P. Møller Holding"), all-cash voluntary recommended purchase offer to acquire all of the issued shares (the "Shares") in Svitzer Group A/S ("Svitzer"), except for Shares owned by APMHI and Shares held by Svitzer and/or its subsidiaries in treasury, if any (the "Offer"), expired on 14 May 2025 at 5:00 p.m. CEST.

The final result confirms that APMHI based on received acceptances and together with its current holding of Shares, will hold approximately 93.4% of the share capital and total number of voting rights in Svitzer.

Accordingly, APMHI is pleased to announce that it considers all conditions of the Offer satisfied and that the Offer is completed on the terms and conditions set out in the offer document published by APMHI on 2 April 2025 (the "Offer Document").

"With the Offer being completed, we now look forward to working with Svitzer's management to ensure the company's long-term potential is fully realized and to supporting Svitzer as it seizes future opportunities. We would also like to take this opportunity to express our sincere gratitude to Svitzer's shareholders for their trust in the company and their support throughout this process," said Martin Larsen, CFO of A.P. Møller Holding.

Settlement

The Offer will be settled in cash through the shareholders' own custodian bank or account holding institute. The trading day for settlement is expected to be today, Friday 16 May 2025, and pay date is expected to be Tuesday 20 May 2025. Payment to shareholders who do not have a Danish bank account may take longer.

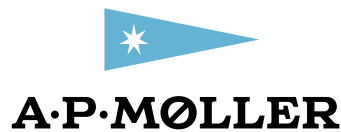

Danske Bank A/S acts as settlement bank in connection with the settlement of the Offer.

Compulsory acquisition and delisting

As APMHI will hold more than 90% of the share capital and voting rights in Svitzer as a result of the Offer, APMHI will initiate a compulsory acquisition of the Shares held by the remaining minority shareholders of Svitzer in accordance with Danish law on Friday 23 May 2025. Further information on the compulsory acquisition will be provided separately once commenced.

The price per Share offered in the compulsory acquisition will be DKK 277, corresponding to the price paid per Share in the Offer as adjusted for the ordinary dividend paid to shareholders following the annual general meeting on 10 April 2025.

As a consequence of the compulsory acquisition, APMHI will seek to have the Shares removed from trading and official listing on Nasdaq Copenhagen A/S following completion of the Offer and prior to the first day of the disposal period for the compulsory acquisition. The last day of trading is expected to be Thursday 22 May 2025.

Important information

This announcement is not directed at Shareholders whose participation in the Offer would require issuance of an offer document, registration or any activities beyond those required under Danish law. The Offer is not being made, and the Shares will not be accepted for purchase from or on behalf of persons, in any jurisdiction in which the making or acceptance thereof would not be in compliance with the securities or other laws or regulations of such jurisdiction, including sanction laws, or would require any registration, approval or filing with any regulatory authority not expressly contemplated by the Offer Document. Persons obtaining this announcement and/or into whose possession this announcement or any other document referring to the Offer comes are required to take due note and observe all such restrictions and obtain any necessary authorisations, approvals or consents. Neither APMHI, any of their advisors nor the settlement bank accepts any liability for any violation by any person of any such restriction. Any person (including, without limitation, custodians, nominees and trustees) who intends to forward this announcement or document related to the Offer to any jurisdiction outside Denmark should inform themselves of the laws of the relevant jurisdiction. The distribution of this announcement in jurisdictions other than Denmark may be restricted by law, and, therefore, persons who come into possession of this announcement should inform themselves about and observe such restrictions. Any failure to comply with any such restrictions may constitute a violation of the securities laws and regulations of any such jurisdiction.

This announcement does not constitute an offer or an invitation to purchase Shares or a solicitation of an offer to purchase Shares pursuant to the Offer or otherwise. The Offer is made solely by means of the Offer Document on the terms and conditions set out therein.

The Offer is not subject to the rules in Chapter 8 of the Danish Capital Markets Act and the Danish Executive Order no. 636 of 15 May 2020 on takeovers as APMHI is already deemed to have control over Svitzer as control is defined in the Danish Capital Markets Act.

Important information for shareholders in the United States

The Offer is being made for the securities of Svitzer, a public listed company incorporated under Danish law, and is subject to Danish disclosure and procedural requirements, which differ from those of the United States. The Offer will be made in the United States in compliance with applicable Danish securities laws and the applicable requirements of the U.S. Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and the rules and regulations adopted by the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission thereunder, including Regulation 14E.

It may be difficult for U.S. holders of Shares to enforce their rights and any claim arising out of the U.S. federal securities laws, because APMHI and Svitzer are located in a country other than the United States, and all of their officers and directors are residents of a country other than the United States. U.S. holders of Shares may not be able to sue a non-U.S. company or its officers or directors in a non-U.S. court for violations of the U.S. securities laws. Further, it may be difficult to compel a non-U.S. company and its affiliates to subject themselves to a U.S. court's judgment.

A·P·MØLLER

Neither the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission nor any U.S. state securities commission or other regulatory authority has approved or disapproved the Offer, passed upon the fairness or merits of the Offer or provided an opinion as to the accuracy or completeness of this announcement, the Offer Document or any other documents regarding the Offer.

Forward-looking statements

This announcement contains certain statements about Svitzer Group and its business as well as the timing and procedures relating to the Offer and potential amendments to the Offer that are or may be forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements are typically identified by the use of forward-looking terminology such as “believes”, “expects”, “may”, “will”, “could”, “should”, “intends”, “estimates”, “plans”, “assumes” or “anticipates” or the negative thereof or other variations thereon or comparable terminology, or by discussions of strategy that involve risks and uncertainties. These forward-looking statements are subject to a number of risks and uncertainties, many of which are beyond APMHI’s control and all of which are based on APMHI’s current beliefs and expectations about future events. In addition, from time to time, APMHI or its representatives have made or may make forward-looking statements orally or in writing. Such forward-looking statements may be included in, but are not limited to, press releases or oral statements made by or with the approval of APMHI’s authorised executive officers. By their nature, forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties beyond APMHI’s control because they relate to future events and circumstances, including, but not limited to, financial, economic and business conditions, the reduction of demand for towage services, changes in demand for oil and gas, operating hazards, the technological and other developments in the industry the Svitzer Group operates in, the energy transition, the effects of volatility in credit markets, market-related risks such as changes in interest rates and exchange rates, the policies and actions of governmental and regulatory authorities, changes in legislation, the further development of standards and interpretations under International Financial Reporting Standards applicable to past, current and future periods, the outcome of pending and future litigations, the loss of key personnel or similar, the success of future acquisitions and other strategic transactions and the impact of competition. As a result, actual future results may differ materially from the plans, goals, and expectations set forth in these forward-looking statements. Any forward-looking statements made herein speak only as of the date they are made. APMHI disclaims any obligation or undertaking to release publicly any updates or revisions to any forward-looking statements contained in this announcement to reflect any change in APMHI’s expectations with regard thereto or any change in events, conditions or circumstances on which any such statement is based.
