

2024 Annual Report

April 30, 2025 | Sidertrade, the global leader in AI-powered Order-to-Cash applications, today publishes its 2024 Annual Report, highlighting a year defined by record performance, innovation in generative AI, and continued international expansion.

Sidertrade's 2024 Annual Report provides an in-depth analysis of the company's ecosystem, strategic direction, and governance framework. It also reviews the key milestones that shaped the past financial year. Beyond the financial results, the report connects economic performance and non-financial impact, demonstrating Sidertrade's commitment to responsible growth, exemplary governance, and sustainable value creation.

This report is designed for investors, partners, customers, and stakeholders who want a deeper understanding of how Sidertrade anticipates, innovates, and shapes the future of corporate finance. It is available on the company's website here.

Philippe Gangneux, CSR Ambassador and Chief Financial Officer of Sidertrade, commented:

"In 2024, we delivered record revenue and profitability, while expanding our AI innovation and international footprint. For the second year, we're integrating both financial and non-financial performance to give our stakeholders a transparent, 360° view of how Sidertrade creates value. Our ability to combine sustained growth, operational excellence, and long-term impact is what sets us apart."

"This year's Annual Report goes beyond numbers, highlighting how our intelligent solutions, powered by the Sidertrade Data Lake, are not only accelerating cash flow performance for our customers, but helping finance leaders rethink what's possible in the age of generative AI."
