5. Information on voting before the general meeting

Pursuant to section 298² of the Commercial Code, a shareholder may vote on draft resolutions prepared in respect to the items on the agenda of a general meeting by submitting their vote to the public limited company before the general meeting at least in a format which can be reproduced in writing. The Management Board has published on the website of Tallinna Kaubamaja Grupp AS at www.tkmgroupp.ee and attached to the stock exchange announcement convening the general meeting a ballot paper for voting on the draft resolutions on the agenda items of the general meeting (hereinafter 'ballot paper').

To vote before the general meeting, the completed and signed ballot paper must be submitted to the Management Board no later than by noon on the day preceding the day of the general meeting, i.e. 16th of March 2023 at 12.00. Ballot papers received by the Management Board after the above deadline will not be taken into account. If a shareholder submits more than one completed ballot paper, the ballot paper with the latest digital signature time stamp or posting time stamp will be deemed valid. All previous ballot papers will be deemed invalid.

A shareholder who has voted before the general meeting is deemed to be participating in the general meeting and the votes represented by their shares will be included in the quorum of the general meeting, unless otherwise provided by law. If the shareholder who submitted the ballot paper before the general meeting also physically participates in the general meeting, all ballot papers sent by the shareholder before the general meeting will be deemed invalid.

If the ballot paper has not been completely filled in or has not been submitted in the required manner, Tallinna Kaubamaja Grupp AS has the right to disregard the ballot paper.

To vote before the general meeting by email, the shareholder fills in the ballot paper with the required information electronically and indicates their vote ('for', 'against', 'undecided', or 'no vote') with an X on each draft resolution in an intelligible manner. After marking the vote, the shareholder confirms the ballot paper with their electronically qualified digital signature (in Estonia, for example, with an ID-card, Mobile-ID, or a newer Smart-ID account conforming to the qualified e-signature standard).

The shareholder sends the completed and digitally signed ballot paper to the Management Board no later than by 12 p.m. on 16th of March 2021 via an email to tkmgroupp@kaubamaja.ee.

If the ballot paper is filled in and signed on behalf of the shareholder by the shareholder's representative, the documents certifying the right of representation necessary for the registration of the participants of the general meeting specified in the invitation to the general meeting must be sent together with the ballot paper. If the document certifying the right to represent a shareholder can be submitted only in paper form, it must be forwarded to the office of Tallinna Kaubamaja Grupp AS at Kaubamaja 1 (5th floor) in Tallinn no later than by 12 p.m. on 16th of March 2023. In the case of a shareholder who is a legal person, the right of representation is registered in the Estonian Commercial Register (e.g. a member of the Management Board or a procurator), it is not necessary to send a document certifying the right of representation together with a ballot paper.

Receipt of a ballot paper sent by email will be notified to the shareholder as soon as possible after receipt of the ballot paper and its technical inspection at the email address from which the ballot paper was sent.

5.2. Voting by post before the general meeting

To vote before the general meeting by post, the shareholder fills in the ballot paper with the required information electronically or by hand and indicates their vote ('for', 'against', 'undecided', or 'no vote') with an X on each draft resolution in an intelligible manner. After marking the vote, the shareholder confirms the ballot paper with their handwritten signature.

When voting by post, it is necessary to send a copy of the personal data page of the signatory's identity document to the Management Board together with the ballot paper in order to ensure the identification of the shareholder and the security and reliability of voting.

The shareholder sends the completed ballot paper together with their handwritten signature and a copy of their identity document to the Management Board no later than by 12 p.m. on 16th of March 2023 to Tallinna Kaubamaja Grupp AS at Kaubamaja 1, 10143, Tallinn.
