16. Authorising the Board of Directors to decide on the issuance of shares and issuance of rights of option and other special rights entitling to shares

– The Board of Directors proposes to the General Meeting that the General Meeting authorises the Board of Directors to decide on the issue of new shares or the company's own shares in the possession of the company. The new shares and the company's own shares in possession of the company could be issued either against payment or without payment to the company's shareholders in accordance with their proportional ownership of the company's shares or through a directed issue by deviating from the shareholders' pre-emptive subscription right provided that there is a weighty financial reason for the deviation from the company's point of view. A directed share issue could only be made without payment if there is an especially weighty financial reason for it from the point of view of the company and all its shareholders.

In addition, the authorisation would include a right to issue shares without payment to the company itself, provided that the number of shares issued to the company would not exceed one tenth (1/10) of all shares in the company. When calculating this number, the number of shares held by the company as well as those held by its subsidiaries must be taken into account as set out in Chapter 15, section 11(1) of the Companies Act.

The authorisation would also include the right to issue special rights, as defined in Chapter 10, section 1 of the Companies Act, which entitle to subscribe for new shares in the company or the company's own shares in the possession of the company against payment. The payment may be made either in cash or by setting off the subscriber's receivables against the company as payment for the share subscription.

The Board of Directors may use the authorisation for the purpose of making fee / salary payments in the form of shares.

The Board of Directors is entitled to decide on other issues related to the share issues.

No more than 30% of the number of Series A shares on the date of this notice, i.e. 15,656,622 Series A shares in the aggregate, and no more than 30% of the number of Series K shares on the date of this notice, i.e.

2,304,750 Series K shares in the aggregate, i.e. no more than 30% of the number of shares on the date of this notice, i.e. 17,961,372 shares in the aggregate, may be issued on the basis of this authorisation, regardless of whether such shares are new shares or the company's own shares in the company's possession.

The authorisation to issue shares is in force until the Annual General Meeting to be held in 2021 but until 30 June 2021 at the latest.

17. Closing of the Meeting
