

Jenny Chu is currently the Head of Global Investment at The Boars' Club. The Boars' Club is a by-invitation, private international investment club which creates a unique platform for principals of single family offices to gain assistance and support in their day-to-day operations through a variety of services and shared investment opportunities through high quality private equity and private market opportunities. The Boars' Club was designed to address the needs of 500 of the world's wealthiest single family offices for who the Club delivers a unique platform to assist, socialize and share high quality investment opportunities.

Ms. Chu has over 25 years of experience in the financial services industry as an elite wealth management specialist. Ms. Chu began her career in 1996 at Morgan Stanley in Beverly Hills as an Account Executive. After excelling in the rigorous training program, Ms. Chu's innate talent was quickly recognized and she was recruited by UBS Wealth Management in 2000 to be a part of an elite team to open its flagship office on Rodeo Drive in Beverly Hills. In 2009, Ms. Chu joined JP Morgan Securities in Century City as Managing Director and subsequently joined Merrill Lynch Wealth Management in 2016 as a Senior Vice President in Century City.

Ms. Chu has a stellar reputation in the financial industry as a knowledgeable advisor to numerous corporations and ultra-affluent individuals and family offices, serving all their wealth planning needs. Through her experience in the financial industry, including her extensive experience collaborating with investment bankers, CPAs, attorneys, and businesses in many industries, Ms. Chu is able to advise family offices, corporations and ultra high net worth individuals on holistic solutions to various business needs, from investment strategy and implementation, mergers and acquisitions, integrated financial strategies, business financing and capital raises, to business succession, divestitures, and exit planning.

Among other qualifications, Ms. Chu is an expert facilitator, maintaining successful relationships with prominent and accomplished professionals, both in the U.S. and globally, which has enabled her to bring together the top performers in a variety of fields, allowing her to become indispensable in many multi-million and billion dollar projects worldwide. Ms. Chu regularly helps facilitate complex cross-border transactions, to help companies from the start up stage, acceleration phase, and through the exit stage in order to enable the companies to access the U.S. capital markets.

Education:

Ewha Woman's University, Bachelor of Science in Pharmacology Pomona University, Master of Business Administration

Licenses and Certifications:

U.S. Securities License: Series 7, 66, and 63

Insurance License

Real Estate License (California)

Certified Family Office Financial Management Advisor CEPA (Certified Exit Planning Advisor) Designation

Selected Directorships and Memberships:

- Founder, The Korea Conference
- Board of Directors, Korean American Chamber of Commerce
- Advisor, Food Science & Biotechnology Project of Seoul National University
- U.S. Ambassador, Korea Trade Investment Promotion Agency (KOTRA)
- Former Council Member (two terms), Korea National Unification Advisory Council
- Mentor in Residence, The Korean Ministry of Science and ICT