

Quadiant Named an Approved Cloud Software Supplier on UK Government's Digital Marketplace

Paris, December 6, 2022

Quadiant (Euronext Paris: QDT), a leader in helping businesses create meaningful customer connections through digital and physical channels, announced today it has been awarded a place on the UK government's new G Cloud 13 framework, managed by Crown Commercial Service (CCS). G Cloud provides organizations, across both central government and the wider public sector, with an online digital marketplace to procure cloud-based software solutions.

The Digital Marketplace also allows organizations to easily procure required services at competitive prices, protecting the public purse.

Quadiant has been a long-time provider of solutions to the UK central government and wider public sector organizations, having been awarded places on multiple previous framework agreements. G Cloud 13 further builds on these relationships, providing access to Quadiant's broad portfolio of cloud-based software solutions.

As part of the successful acceptance to G Cloud 13, organizations can now access seven Quadiant cloud-based solutions via the Digital Marketplace, across the applications below:

- Accounts payable automation
- Accounts receivable automation
- Multichannel communications
- Customer experience management
- Document management
- Postal address validation

"We are delighted to have been awarded a place on G Cloud 13, a clear indication of our commitment to supporting UK government and the wider public sector," said Craig Spencer, Director of Public Sector Strategy at Quadiant UK. "G Cloud 13 presents a real opportunity for organizations to access leading-edge SaaS technologies simply and at competitive rates."

Quadiant's growing software business has more than 12,000 customers worldwide, 78% of which rely on the company's SaaS solutions. The company's Intelligent Communication Automation (ICA) cloud-based platform includes a comprehensive offering for accounts payable (AP) and accounts receivable (AR) automation and management, customer communications management (CCM) and document automation and customer journey mapping (CJM).
