

Company announcement: PWT Holding A/S has requested the court for a postponement of the meeting with the creditors to discuss the restructuring proposal to ensure a collective solution for the PWT group

PWT Holding A/S has requested the probate court to postpone the meeting with the creditors, where the restructuring proposal is put to the vote, with two months.

The reason for the request is that the restructuring proposal for PWT Group A/S is expected to contain a collective solution for the handling of the companies in the PWT group including PWT Holding A/S.
