Sdipotech completes acquisition of Kemi-tech

On 29 June, Sdipotech AB (publ) announced that the company had entered into an agreement to acquire Kemi-tech ApS, a leading provider in tailored chemical solutions for industrial water treatment. The Danish Business Authority has approved the transaction and Sdipotech has now completed the acquisition.

The acquisition of Kemi-tech aligns perfectly with Sdipotech's vision of providing niched technologies that contributes to more sustainable, efficient and safe societies. Kemi-tech is Sdipotech's second business unit in Denmark and will be included in the business area Resource Efficiency as of July 2023.

About Kemi-tech

Based in Hedensted, Denmark, Kemi-tech is specialised in the chemical treatment of all types of water-carrying systems. The company's products ensure that steam boilers, cooling systems and district heating plants run more efficiently, save energy and last longer.
